

CONTENTS

List of figures	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction: Soldier heroes, masculinity and British national identity	1
 Part I Soldier heroes, adventure and the historical imagining of masculinities
1 SOLDIER HEROES AND THE NARRATIVE IMAGINING OF MASCULINITIES	11
Masculinity and narrative in nationalist discourse – Feminism, fantasy and narrative – Composure, recognition and the narrative imagining of masculinities
2 MASCULINITY, PHANTASY AND HISTORY	27
Psychoanalysis, history and cultural studies – Phantasy and the social world in Kleinian psychoanalysis – Psychic splitting, integration and composure – Gender identity, psychic conflict and cultural forms – From psychic imagos to cultural imaginaries
3 THE ADVENTURE QUEST AND ITS CULTURAL IMAGINARIES	53
The quest structure of adventure – The cultural imaginaries of modern adventure – Scott's Waverley: the splitting and integration of adventure and domesticity

CONTENTS

Part II The hero-making and hagiography of Havelock of Lucknow: Imperialism and military adventure in the nineteenth century

- 4 THE IMAGINING OF A HERO: SIR HENRY HAVELOCK,
THE INDIAN REBELLION AND THE NEWS 79
*Introduction: the making of a hero – ‘The news’ from India in 1857 – The British colonial imaginary and the Indian Rebellion
– The adventures of Henry Havelock – Contesting the Havelock heroic image – The death of the hero*
- 5 COMMEMORATING THE EXEMPLARY LIFE:
THE HAVELOCK HAGIOGRAPHY 117
*Mourning, reparation and commemoration – Eulogies to a dead hero – The exemplary-life hagiography – ‘Every inch a Christian, and every inch a soldier’: Marshman’s adventure hero – ‘A sad houseless wanderer’: the adventure hero, domestic manhood and Christian composure – Splitting
Havelock: the soldier hero in the era of popular imperialism – Decathecting Havelock: the hero since 1914*

Part III The public and private lives of T. E. Lawrence: The imperial adventure hero in the modern world

- 6 THE BLOND BEDOUIN: LAWRENCE OF ARABIA AND
IMPERIAL ADVENTURE IN THE MODERN WORLD 167
Introduction: the blond Bedouin – The irregular soldier and the flight from modernity – The quest for freedom – ‘Becoming an Arab’ – Popular adventure in modern times
- 7 THE PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIVES OF T. E. LAWRENCE:
THE ADVENTURE HERO AND MODERNIST
MASCULINITY 191
*Lawrence of Arabia and the ‘real’ T. E. Lawrence – Disturbing adventure: Seven Pillars of Wisdom – Composing the self:
modernism, public recognition and ambivalence*
- 8 PUBLIC PATHOLOGIES: T. E. LAWRENCE, PSYCHOLOGICAL BIOGRAPHY AND THE CULTURAL
POLITICS OF IMPERIAL DECLINE 208
Public media, private life – Biography, phantasy and post-imperial masculinity – Lean and Bolt’s Faustian epic – A lament for imperial adventure

CONTENTS

Part IV Soldier heroes and the imagining of boyhood masculinity

9	PLAYING AT SOLDIERS: BOYHOOD PHANTASIES AND THE PLEASURE-CULTURE OF WAR	233
	Introduction: boyhood play and the pleasure-culture of war – Phantasy, play and memory – Playing at soldiers – War play and domestic life
10	SELF-IMAGINING: BOYHOOD MASCULINITY, SOCIAL RECOGNITION AND THE ADVENTURE HERO	259
	Imagining myself in the social world – Boy culture – Hornblower meets the skinheads: the abandoning of adventure – The return of the soldier
	Afterword: Soldier heroes and the cultural politics of reparation	282
	Notes	293
	Index	337