

Contents

Tables and Figure	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
1 The context of the research	7
2 Early family life and the formation of Deaf identities	28
3 Educational experiences; symbolic language oppression, the imposition of hearing identity and the ignominy of sign language	58
4 Employment experiences: social relations between Deaf & hearing workers: linguistic isolation and submerged identity	76
5 Identity and power relations	110
6 Social, linguistic and political functions of the Deaf Club	121
7 The politics of Deafness: the construction of difference, BDA rhetoric and liberated identity	141
8 The cultural meaning of Deafness	164
9 Conclusion	177

Bibliography	179
Appendix 1: Terminology	191
Appendix 2: Atlas.ti and use of computers in qualitative research	193

Tables and Figure

Table 2.1	Self identity/audiological status/family audiological status	55
Table 2.2	Analysis of adventitious deafness/self identity	56
Table 2.3	Analysis of self identity	56
Table 4.1	BSL, lipreading and speech skills of interviewees and participants	107
Table 4.2	Characteristics of the Deaf people in the study	108
Figure 6.1	The construction and promulgation of cultural meaning	139