

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vi
Notes on Contributors	vii
Preface	xi
Introduction: the Past and Future of Social Studies of Labour Movements	1
Marino Regini
1 The Strength of Union Movements in Advanced Capitalist Democracies: Social and Organizational Variations	17
Jelle Visser
2 Labour Movements and Political Systems: Some Variations	53
J. Samuel Valenzuela
3 The Resurgence of Labour Quiescence	102
Michael Shalev
4 The Emerging Realignment Between Labour Movements and Welfare States	133
Gøsta Esping-Andersen
5 Trade Unions and the Disaggregation of the Working Class	150
Richard Hyman
6 The Fate of Articulated Industrial Relations Systems: a Stock-taking after the 'Neo-liberal' Decade	169
Colin Crouch
7 Europe's Internal Market, Business Associability and the Labour Movement	188
Luca Lanza-laco and Philippe C. Schmitter
8 Trade Unions and Decentralized Production: a Sketch of Strategic Problems in the German Labour Movement	217
Horst Kern and Charles F. Sabel
9 Training and the New Industrial Relations: a Strategic Role for Unions?	250
Wolfgang Streeck
Index	270