

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	3
 I From the Library into the Streets	 7
THEORY AND PRAXIS	9
 II Growing Up in Western Society	 11
THE CONTEMPORARY FAMILY	12
Postmodern Descriptions	13
Famology-Reification of the Family	15
Multiple Models of Family	16
Family as Action Context	17
DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY OF YOUTH FROM
DYSFUNCTIONAL FAMILIES	17
The Dysfunctional Family	17
Key Developmental Stages	20
CHALLENGES TO STREET LIFE	22
Characteristics of Displaced Youth	22
 III Methodology	 29
THE STUDY SAMPLE	30
Definitions	32
Participants	32
Data Collection	33

IV Getting to Know Street Youths	45
A TYPICAL DAY IN THE STREET	45
Interview Guide Questions	48
Youths' Statements	49
Case Histories	50
Finding Historical Origins of Youths	53
V Functions of Street Families	55
TASK-PERFORMING FUNCTIONS OF TOOLS	55
Seeking Responsibility	57
Developing Egalitarian Relationships	58
Other Adults and Nonegalitarian Treatment	58
Belonging in Your Own Turf	59
A Place to Feel Normal	61
Having A Recreational Unit	62
Finding Opportunities to Contribute	63
A Place to Teach	64
Role Modeling	65
Creating Personal Agency	66
Organizing Internal and External Protocols	67
Maintaining Family Boundaries	68
Operating Family Discipline Styles	68
Developing Cooperative Communication	69
VI Ritual & Mythological Features of Street Families
REPLACEMENT BEHAVIORS	71
Myth as a System to Bring Order to Chaos	72
Art	73
Origins	74
Myths to Live By	75
Religious Beliefs	77
VII Conclusions	81
RECOMMENDATIONS	83
Ending the Cycle	83
Bibliography	87
Index	95