
Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	xi
1. What is international money all about?	1
The foreign exchange markets	1
Eurocurrency markets	3
2. The essence of currency calculations	6
Foreign exchange markets	6
Inflation, interest and exchange rates	8
Practicalities	14
An overview	14
Appendix: A deductive proof of the four-way equivalence model	15
3. How are foreign exchange rates quoted?	23
The players	23
Methods of quotation	24
Forward contracts and quotations	26
An overview	29
4. What makes exchange rates move?	30
The balance of payments approach	30
The monetary approach	32
Chartism	33
The efficient markets hypothesis	36
An overview	38

5. What is foreign exchange risk?	40
Transaction exposure	41
Translation exposure	41
Economic exposure	46
An overview	49
6. Why worry about foreign exchange risk?	50
Transaction exposure	50
Economic exposure	53
Translation exposure	54
An overview	56
7. Internal techniques of managing foreign exchange exposure	58
Netting	58
Matching	59
Leading and lagging	60
Price variation	62
Invoicing in foreign currency	62
Asset and liability management	66
An overview	67
8. External techniques of managing foreign exchange exposure	68
Forward markets	68
Trading purpose of the forward market	69
Short-term borrowing	75
Discounting foreign currency denominated bills receivable	77
Factoring foreign currency denominated receivables	77
Currency overdrafts	78
Government exchange risk guarantees	79
An overview	79
9. What are currency swaps?	81
Swaps	81
An overview	84
10. What are financial futures on foreign exchange?	88
Financial futures in general	88
Currency contracts	91
An overview	94

11. How do currency options work?	95
How currency option markets work	96
Currency option strategies	100
Option pricing models	103
Corporate use of currency options	105
An overview	107
12. Interest rate risk	108
The term structure of interest rates	108
Forward rate agreements	112
Interest rate futures	114
Interest rate swaps	114
Interest rate options	115
An overview	116
13. The value of growth options	117
An example using decision trees	118
Flexibility and value creation	120
The Black and Scholes model	121
Another example with decision trees	122
An overview	125
14. Is the international investment decision different?	126
The international complications	126
An overview	132
15. Is the international financing decision different?	133
The Eurobond market	133
Borrowing internationally	135
The risks of borrowing internationally	137
An overview	138
16. The European Monetary System	139
Principal features of the EMS	139
The Exchange Rate Mechanism	140
European Monetary Union	141
German reunification	142
Black Wednesday	144
The wake of Black Wednesday	145
An overview	147

17. Why hedge anyway?	149
The capital asset pricing model	149
What does exposure management aim to achieve?	156
The arguments against corporate hedging	156
Employees and managers	158
And shareholders too	158
The value of the firm	159
Financial distress	159
An overview	162
18. Economic exposure revisited	163
Macroeconomic exposure	163
The analysis	164
Hedging	165
Interest rates invariably key	166
Experiments with macroeconomic exposure	167
An overview	167
Questions and answers	168
Numerical questions	168
Bramit Investment Trust plc	170
Answers to numerical questions	172
Suggested answers to the Bramit Investment Trust questions	175
Further reading	180
Index	181