

Contents

Figures and Tables	vii
Preface	ix
1 Rhetoric and Reality in Environmental Issues in the Netherlands and Britain today: an Introduction Dr Michael Wintle, University of Hull	1
2 Shades of Green: Political Parties and Dutch Environmental Policy Dr Theo van der Tak, Twijnstra Gudde, Amersfoort	9
3 New Strategies for Environmental Policy: Regional Network Management in the Netherlands Professor Pieter Glasbergen and Dr Peter Driessen, University of Utrecht	25
4 Transport and the Environment: a Dutch Perspective Gary Haq, University of Lancaster	41
5 Global Warming and Energy Policy in the Netherlands: towards Sustainable Development? Dr Ute Collier, University of Hertfordshire	63
6 Household Waste Recycling in Rural Areas in the Netherlands and Britain Jane Bone, Luton University	84

- 7 Confronting the Nitrate Problem: the Dutch and British
Responses to the 1991 EC Nitrate Directive
Rachel Reeve, University of Oxford 96
- 8 Environmental Policy in the Netherlands: Change and Effectiveness
Dr Jan van der Straaten, Tilburg University, and Dr Judith Ugelow, Aarhus School of Business 118

Figures and tables

Table 2.1	Percentage of the population considering the environment or unemployment the most important political problem	10
Table 2.2	Percentage of votes and seats in parliament of five political parties	12
Table 2.3	Environmental responsibilities in the Netherlands	14
Table 2.4	Expenditures and number of personnel engaged in environmental policies	15
Table 2.5	Left-right scale of Dutch political parties on environmental policies	23
Table 5.1	Sectoral responsibilities for achieving the CO ₂ target	68
Table 5.2	Expected efficiency improvements according to sector, 1990-2000	72
Table 5.3	Target groups and measures	75
Table 5.4	Features of a sustainable energy policy	77
Table 6.1	Make-up of Household Waste in the UK	86

Figure 7.1	Requirements of the EC nitrates directive (91/676/EEC)	103
Table 8.1	Changes in the emission of important polluting substances measured as a percentage of the 1985 level, using different scenarios	127
Table 8.2	Costs of the environmental scenarios I, II, and III	128
Table 8.3	Effects of scenarios I, II, and III on selected economic indicators	128
Figure 8.1	Deposits of potential acid in the Netherlands in the period 1960-2010	138