

Contents

PREFACE

xi

I INTRODUCTION

1 EMERGENCE OF GENDER IN CRIMINOLOGY

3

Invisibility of Women and Girls in Crime

4

Sex Versus Gender

8

What Is Feminism?

10

Effect of Societal Images on Women in Crime

12

Diversity Among Women

13

Summary

15

II	FEMALE OFFENDING
2	CRITIQUING CRIMINOLOGICAL THEORIES	21
	Classical Studies	22
	Strain and Subcultural Theories	26
	Differential Association Theory	29
	Labeling Theory	30
	Social Control Theory	32
	Marxist/Radical Theories	36
	Women's Liberation/Emancipation Hypothesis	37
	Summary	39
3	THE FREQUENCY AND NATURE OF FEMALE OFFENDING	45
	Description of Offending	46
	Importance of Age, Race, Class, and Data Type	47
	Female Offending in Context	49
	Changes in Female Offending Over Time	57
	Summary	59
4	PROCESSING FEMALE OFFENDERS	64
	Criminal Laws and Sex Discrimination	65
	Sentencing Laws and Sex Discrimination	67
	Three Hypotheses of Sex Discrimination in Crime Processing	69
	Chivalry and Paternalism	70

Empirical Findings on Gender Differences in Crime Processing	71
Summary	85

5	PUNISHING AND TREATING FEMALE OFFENDERS	91
	History of Institutionalizing Females	92
	Women's Prisons Today	97
	Rates of Imprisonment	100
	Who Is In Women's Prisons?	101
	Girls' "Correctional" Institutions	102
	Psychological Aspects of Women's Imprisonment	103
	Parenthood: A Gender Difference Among Prisoners	105
	Educational, Vocational, and Recreational Programs	107
	Health Care Services	109
	The Prisoner Subculture	111
	Cocorrections	112
	Summary	115

III FEMALE VICTIMS OF MALE VIOLENCE

6	THE IMAGE OF THE FEMALE VICTIM	123
	Determining the Frequency and Nature of Female Victimization	124
	Effect of Culture on Gender Roles	126
	Gender Disparities in Power	127
	Threat of Violence	129
	Victim Blaming	130

	Victimization of Women of Color	133
	Summary	134
7	SEXUAL VICTIMIZATION	139
	Defining Sexual Victimization	139
	Historical Issues in Defining Sexual Victimization	140
	Statistics on Sexual Victimization	142
	Who are the Victims?	143
	Who are the Offenders?	144
	The Victim-Offender Relationship	146
	Child Sexual Victimization	146
	Date Rape	150
	Marital Rape	154
	Sexual Harassment	156
	Sexual Victimization and the Crime-Processing System	158
	Summary	162
8	BATTERED WOMEN	169
	Defining Battering	169
	History of Identifying Battering as a Social Problem	171
	Frequency of Battering	172
	Walker's Cycle Theory of Violence	173
	Why Do (Some) Men Batter?	174
	Who Are the Batterers?	176
	Inhibitors to Leaving a Violent Relationship	178
	The Constant Threat of Danger	184
	Woman Battering and the Crime-Processing System	185
	Health Professionals	195
	Summary	196

IV WOMEN WORKERS

9	RESISTANCE TO CHANGE	207
	Movement from the Private to the Public Sphere	208
	Movement Toward Gender Equality	213
	Legal Implications	219
	Women Jurors	225
	Summary	226
10	ON THE JOB	231
	Women as Tokens in the Workplace	232
	History of Women Professionals in Crime Processing	235
	Women as Tokens in Crime-Processing Jobs Since the 1970s	239
	Gender Similarities and Differences in Job Performances	245
	Male Resistance to Women Working in Crime-Processing Jobs	246
	Classifications of Women Employees in Male-Dominated Jobs	249
	Summary	251

V CONCLUSIONS

11	EFFECTING CHANGE	259
	New Theories	259
	Changing the Treatment of Female Offenders	261
	Changing Responses to Male Violence Against Women	265
	Changes for Women Crime-Processing Professionals	270
	Summary	272