

Contents

Preface	vii
1. Introduction: The Nature of Financial Risks	1
Risk Management	2
Financial Risk	4
The World Financial Markets	11
Chapter Review	17
Conclusion	18
2. The Fixed Income Markets: Nature and Dynamics	19
Bond Valuation	20
Fixed Income Securities	24
The Term Structure of Interest Rates	46
Theories of Term Structure	52
Bond Portfolio Management	63
Conclusion	68
References	68
3. Interest Rate Management: Hedging Assets and Liabilities	73
Duration	74
Asset/Liability Management	86
On- or Off-Balance Sheet Hedging	97
Other Duration Measures	104
Bonds with Options	115
Factor Models for Bond Returns	117
Conclusions	120
References	120
4. The Foreign Exchange Markets: Nature and Dynamics	123
The International Financial System	124

vi CONTENTS

Monetary Convergence in Europe	132
The Foreign Exchange Markets	140
Explaining Exchange Rates	154
Conclusions	177
References	177
5. Currency Risk Management: Hedging and Speculating with Options and Futures	179
Foreign Exchange Futures	182
Foreign Currency Options	195
Option Prices	207
Trading Strategies with Options	223
Conclusions	232
References	232
6. Portfolio Risk Management: Domestic Dimensions	235
Portfolio Choice	236
The Capital Pricing Model	249
The Arbitrage Pricing Theory	258
Finance Theory in Investment Management	262
Measuring the Performance of Portfolio Managers	264
Conclusions	269
References	269
7. Portfolio Risk Management: International Dimensions	273
Why International?	274
The Puzzle of Foreign Portfolio Investment	281
Portfolio Choice with Exchange Risk	283
Capital Markets: Integrated or Segmented?	308
Empirical Tests	315
Conclusions	318
References	319
8. The Search for Higher Returns: Anomalies	323
EMH: Theory	324
Equity Market	326
Foreign Exchange Market	339
Conclusions	348
References	348
Index	353