

---

CONTENTS

---

Foreword	xix
1 Child Poverty: Overview and Outlook Judith A. Chafel	1
Overview of Chapters 2 through 10	4
2 Profiles of Children and Families in Poverty Judith S. Musick	9
Background, Method, Sample, and Sources	10
Background	10
Method	11
Sample Characteristics	12
Sources	13
Case Study 1. Lessons of Sex Are Lessons of Self:
Growing up Female in Poverty	14
Description	14
Analysis of the Problem	15
Supports and Resources Available to Families	20
Unresolved Issues	22
Next Steps in Policymaking	22
Lessons from Heart-to-Heart	23
Case Study 2. Being Better than Good: The Role of
Parents in an Environment of Risk	28
Description	28
Analysis of the Problem	29
Supports and Resources for Poor Parents and
Children: The Case of the School	32
Unresolved Issues	42
Policy Implications	43
Challenges for Public Policy	44
Appendix 2.A: Data Sources	47

3 Who Are the Poor? A Demographic Perspective	William H. Scarbrough	55
How is Poverty Defined and What Does it Mean?		56
Problems in Measuring Poverty		58
Composition of Poverty Population and Historical Trends		63
Age		64
Race/Ethnicity		66
Family Structure		70
Family Size		73
Geographic Locale		75
Dynamics of Child Poverty: Depth and Duration		78
Depth of Child Poverty		78
Duration of Poverty		79
What Does All this Mean?		82
Issues Emanating from the Analyses		84
Poverty Measurement		84
Poverty and Growing Cultural Diversity		85
Policies for Children and Families		86
4 Children of Poverty: Why Are They Poor?	Suzanne M. Bianchi	91
Macroeconomic Conditions and the Trend in Child Poverty		92
Growing Inequality in Earnings		95
Changing Family Structure		98
Government Income Transfers and Taxation		103
Factors that Decreased Childhood Poverty		105
Urban Ghetto Poverty and the Rural Poor		106
Antipoverty Programs: Cause or Cure of Poverty?		107
Challenges for Public Policy		111
Summary and Conclusion		116
5 Childhood Poverty and Child Maltreatment
Joan I. Vondra		127
Major Findings on Child Maltreatment		129
Poverty as Risk		130
Parental Psychology as Risk		131
Community Resources and Societal Values as Risk		134
Sociocultural Considerations		136

Implications for Public Policy	139
Prevention or Intervention?	139
When to Intervene?	146
Goals of Intervention	147
Policy Questions for Future Research	149
Agreeing on Definitions	149
Setting the Scope of Intervention	151
Demonstrating Cost-Effectiveness	153
Fostering Collaboration on Solutions	154
Challenges for Public Policy	157
Conclusion	159

6 The Child in Poverty: Enduring Images and Changing Interpretations	Elsie G. J. Moore	167
Deficient Child Perspective		171
Deficient Environment Equals Deficient Development Perspective		171
Low IQ Equals Hereditary Inadequacy Perspective		177
Culturally Different Child Perspective		182
The At-Risk/Vulnerable Child: Deficient Child Revisited		187
Deficient Child Perspective: Myth in Service of Inequality		191
Challenges for Social Policy		193
Conclusions		194

7 The 101st Congress: An Emerging Agenda for Children in Poverty	Sandra L. Hofferth	203
The Issues: Low-Income Children and Their Families		203
Self-Sufficiency		203
Child Health and Development		204
Window of Opportunity		205
Evolution of Child Care Legislation		206
Setting the Agenda		206
Summary		216
Legislative History of Child Care and Early Education Provisions in Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990		217
Early Phase: Writing the ABC Bill and Forming the Alliance		217
Garnering Support		220

Middle Phase: Compromise, Division, and Defeat	221
The Final Push—Holding Public Attention and Making Compromises	224
Child Care and Early Education Legislation Passed by 101st Congress	225
Expansion of Tax Credits	226
Child Care and Development Block Grant	227
“At-Risk” Child Care Program	228
Child Care Improvement Grants	228
Head Start	228
Coordinated Services for Children, Youth, and Families	229
Child Care and Early Education Legislation Passed by 102nd Congress	230
Ready to Learn Television Act	230
Head Start Quality Improvement Act	230
Family Resource Centers	230
Technical Amendments to Child Care and Development Block Grant	230
Summary	231
Challenges for Public Policy and Clinton Administration	232
Challenge of Quality	232
What Are the Priorities for Head Start and Other Federal Programs?	233
Challenges of Coordination	234
Challenge of State Implementation	234
Parental Leave	235
Summary and Conclusions	235
Implementation	236
Coordination	237
Quality	238
Conclusion	238
 8 Human Capital: The Biggest Deficit Harold Watts	245
What is Human Capital?	247
Indicators of Failure and Neglect of Human Capital Investment	252
Human Capital Investment and the Parade of Generations	254
Social Security Trust Funds—Can We Trust Them?	257

Matching the Surplus with the Deficit	260
A Policy to Redeem Our Promises	263
9 Advocacy for Children in Poverty Judith A. Chafel and Kevin Condit	273
Advocacy: What Does it Mean?	275
Needed: A Social Policy for Children in Poverty	276
Domestic Agenda-Setting	277
Influencing the Legislative Agenda from the Top	278
Down and the Bottom Up	279
Defining an Issue and Identifying a Target	281
Building a Coalition	282
Creating an Issue Network	283
Coordinating Lobbying Efforts	284
Exerting Pressure on the Legislature	286
Schematic Example: Head Start Teacher Training	288
Philanthropy	293
Recommendations	293
Advocacy Research	294
Reforming Philanthropy	295
Policy Coordination	296
Advocacy Training	297
Conclusion	303
Appendix 9.A: National Organizations Performing Child Poverty and Child Policy Research and Advocacy	303
10 Conclusion: Integrating Themes about Child Poverty in Search of a Solution Judith A. Chafel	327
The Poor Face Remarkable Challenges	328
Poverty Is a Diverse, Complex Phenomenon	332
Empirical Inquiry Is Needed to Illuminate the Problem of Child Poverty	336
Challenges Exist for Public Policy	340
About the Editor	347
About the Contributors	349

Tables

3.1 Average U.S. Poverty Thresholds by Family Size and Number of Children Under Age 18: 1991	57
--	----

3.2 Average U.S. Poverty Thresholds: for Four-Person Families, Numbers of Poor Children, and Poverty Rates Under Alternative Poverty Measures: 1991	60
3.3 Consequences of Adjusting the Official U.S. Poverty Measure of Noncash Benefits and Taxes on the Child Poverty Rate: 1981, 1986, 1991	61
3.4 Cost-of-Living Indexes and Maximum Monthly AFDC Benefits for Family of Three in the United States: 1991	62
3.5 Percentages and Poverty Rates for all Nonwhite Children and Poor Nonwhite Children, in the United States: 1960 and 1991	70
3.6 Distribution of all Children and of Poor Children in the United States by Family Type and Age: 1991	72
3.7 Poverty Rates (and Total Number) for all U.S. Children by Region and Residence: 1991	76
3.8 Extent of Poverty During First 10 Years of Childhood for U.S. Children Born in Late 1970s, by Years Spent in Various Living Arrangements	81
4.1 Children in Mother-Only Families by Marital Status of Mother: United States, 1983–92	99
4.2 Selected Demographic and Socioeconomic Differences among Children Living with a Divorced, Separated, or Never-Married Mother	100
7.1 Major Federal Programs Supporting Early Education, Child Care, and Related Services	210
7.2 Major Events in Passage of 1990 Child Care Legislation	219

Figures

3.1 Poverty Rates, by Age Groups in the United States: 1959–91	65
3.2 Percentage Distributions of All Children and Poor Children in the United States by Race/Ethnicity: 1991	68
3.3 Average Number of Children Living in U.S. Families by Poverty Status and Year	75

3.4	Extent of Poverty During First 10 Years of Childhood for U.S. Children Born Around 1970, by Race	82
4.1	Poverty Rate of U.S. Children: 1939–91	93
4.2	Percentage of Male Workers, Aged 25 to 34, with Annual Earnings Below Poverty Threshold for Family of Four: 1969–89	96
9.1	Influencing the Legislative Agenda to Fund Head Start Teacher Training	287