

Contents

Preface	iii
Figure	vii
Table	vii
Summary	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
1. INTRODUCTION	1
The Military's Limited Role	2
The Nature of Interdiction Campaigns	3
2. THE MILITARY EXPERIENCE WITH INTERDICTION	5
Royal Navy and the Slave Trade	5
Civil War Blockade of Southern Ports	6
Coast Guard During Prohibition	7
The Battle of the Atlantic	8
Operation Strangle in Italy	8
Isolating the Normandy Beachhead	9
Submarine Operations in the Pacific	10
Berlin Blockade	10
The Korean Peninsula	11
Market Time	12
Ho Chi Minh Trail	13
Arms Supplies to Afghanistan	14
Summarizing the Cases	14
3. THE PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT IMPERATIVES	17
Dropping Bridges, for Example	18
4. A HIERARCHY OF CONNECTIONS	20
Interdicting Border Crossings	20
The Complications of Alternatives	23
5. HIERARCHIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES	26
Surveillance Responsibilities	27
A Truncated Chain of Command	28
6. THE INFLUENCE OF ABUNDANT INFORMATION	30
7. ASSESSING DRUG INTERDICTION OPERATIONS	33
The Sources of Frustration	35

Figure

1. Areas of Responsibility and Authority 36

Table

1. A Comparison of Historical Interdiction Campaigns 15