
CONTENTS

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART ONE THE MEDICAL REGIME

1 DISEASE AND DEPENDENCY	21
2 AFFECT MANAGEMENT IN A CANCER WARD	31
The order of the hospital as a form of affect management	32
Defence strategies in the cancer ward	41
Exceptional states	49
3 EXPANSION AND LIMITATION OF THE MEDICAL REGIME	57
The medicalization of daily life	58
Early warnings of health risks	60
Lengthier lives, lengthier illnesses	62
Medical advice	63
The expansion of the medical regime	65

PART TWO THE PSYCHOTHERAPY TRADE

4 ON THE SOCIOGENESIS OF THE PSYCHOANALYTIC SITUATION	75
The origins of office practice	77
The early psychoanalytic setting	79
The evolution of the psychoanalytic situation	82
Payment and the problem of reputation	83
The management of time	90
The social isolation of the psychoanalytic encounter	91

The two ground rules	94
Conclusion	97
5 FROM TROUBLES TO PROBLEMS	99
The incomplete professionalization of psychotherapy	102
The partial proto-professionalization of lay circles	105
6 THE INITIAL INTERVIEW AS A TASK	109
The inscrutability of the task	109
The structure of the initial interview and that of the professional hierarchy	114
The initial interview as a conversational genre	118
Fragmentary presentation of a negative autobiography	121
Accountability	123
The teller and the told	126
Comprehensibility	129
Acceptability	131
Conclusions	135
PART THREE EMOTIONS IN THEIR SOCIAL MATRIX
7 THE POLITICS OF AGORAPHOBIA	139
Nineteenth-century limitations on the movement of women in public	142
Twentieth-century agoraphobia	146
From management by command to management by negotiation	150
A postscript on civilization theory and on the theoretical critique of society	161
8 JEALOUSY AS A CLASS PHENOMENON	168
Jealous group relations	170
Relations between the petty bourgeoisie and the working class	172
9 INTIMATE RELATIONS AND DOMESTIC ARRANGEMENTS	182
10 THE SURVIVORS' SYNDROME	195
Notes	205
Index	231