
Contents

DONALD T. CRITCHLOW CHARLES H. PARKER Introduction	1
-----------------------------------------------------------------	---

Charity and Poor Relief in Early Modern Europe

CHARLES H. PARKER Poor Relief and Community in the Early Dutch Republic	13
KATHRYN NORBERG Religious Charity and Cultural Norms in Counter-Reformation France	35
THOMAS M. ADAMS The Provision of Work as Assistance and Correction in France, 1534–1848	55
BRIAN PULLAN Good Government and Christian Charity in Early Modern Italy	77
ANTHONY BRUNDAGE Private Charity and the 1834 Poor Law	99

United States Relief and Welfare in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries

E. WAYNE CARP	123
Orphanages vs. Adoption: The Triumph of Biological Kinship, 1800–1933
ELIZABETH McKEOWN	145
Claiming the Poor
ELLIS W. HAWLEY	161
Herbert Hoover, Associationalism, and the Great Depression Relief Crisis of 1930–1933
ALICE O’CONNOR	191
Neither Charity Nor Relief: The War on Poverty and the Effort to Redefine the Basis of Social Provision
DONALD T. CRITCHLOW	211
Implementing Family Planning Policy: Philanthropic Foundations and the Modern Welfare State
JAMES T. PATTERSON	241
“Reforming” Relief and Welfare: Thoughts on 1834 and 1996
INDEX	261
ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS	269