Contents

Acknowledgements vii

1 Some Continuing Themes in the History of Race Relations 1

Historical background 1
The wartime experience 10
Post war immigration 17
Post war immigration, nationality and race relations legislation 22
Analysis of immigration, nationality and race relations legislation in the post war period 26
Some European comparisons 33

2 Race and the Criminal Justice System 41

Overview of the criminal justice system 41
Policing 47
General issues 47
Some other policing scenarios 57
Black crime 58

Cautioning and arrests 63
Civil disorder 67
General conclusions from policing and implications for institutional racism 69
Courts and sentencing: Methodological and conceptual issues 73
Ethnic minorities and sentencing in England and Wales 82

3 The Social Inquiry Report and Ethnic Minority Defendants: An Exploratory Survey 95

Literature review 95
Methodology 98
Statistical analysis of the sample 101
The multi racial panel 106
Qualitative analysis 113
Culture conflict 115
Racial marginality 129
The 'Alien' offender 143
Conclusion 151

4 Towards Greater Understanding of the Criminal Justice System and Ethnic Minorities 155

Summary of main themes 155
A multi racial criminal justice system 159
Two future scenarios 165
The Way forward for research 168

5 A Replication Study 170

Appendices 174

Bibliography 183