

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Part 1: THE AUDIENCE AND THE MEDIA	1
1 Identity: the media and our understanding of ourselves	3
2 Influence: the media's power – and our own	31
3 Distinctions: social difference, lifestyle and taste	60
Part 2: PERSPECTIVES ON MEDIA TEXTS	97
4 Semiotics: signs, codes and cultures	99
5 Hermeneutics: interpretation and understanding	128
6 Rhetoric: language, situation, purpose	154
7 Narratology: the forms and functions of stories	191
Part 3: PRODUCTION: CONTEXTS AND CONDITIONS	225
8 Public sphere and democracy: ideals and realities	227
9 Broadcasting: technology, society and policy	260
10 Production: creativity, contexts and power	287
Bibliography	311
Index	323