

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	iii
Explanatory notes	vii
I. Levels and trends of mortality	1
II. Child survival and health	9
III. Primary health care and the health-care sector	15
IV. Women's health and safe motherhood	18
V. Human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection and acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS)	23
VI. The epidemiological transition	29
VII. Health and mortality policies	33
VIII. Health and development	39
References	44

TABLES

No.

1. Life expectancy at birth, both sexes: world, major areas and regions, 1950-1955, 1970-1975 and 1990-1995	1
2. Infant mortality for 1970-1975 and 1990-1995, percentage change in infant mortality between those periods, and under-five mortality for 1990-1995, by major area or region ranked according to ascending level of mortality	10
3. Revised 1990 estimates of maternal mortality by region ..	19
4. Incidence, case fatality, and cause-specific mortality rates due to major direct obstetric complications, 1990	20
5. Estimated distribution of people living with HIV/AIDS, 1997	23
6. Adult and child deaths from HIV/AIDS during 1997	24
7. Population groups whose mortality levels are of particular concern to Governments	35
8. Relationship between life expectancy and per capita income	40

FIGURES

No.

I. Life expectancy at birth, both sexes combined: world, more developed regions and less developed regions, 1950-1995, both sexes combined	2
--	---