

Contents

List of abbreviations	v
List of boxes	vii
List of figures	vii
About the author	ix
About Forum for the Future	x
Foreword from Rt Hon Michael Meacher MP, Minister of State (Environment)	xi

Accounting for environmental sustainability – taking nature into account

1 Overview	3
2 What is environmental accounting?	4
2.1 Internal environmental cost accounting	7
2.2 External cost accounting – internalising environmental externalities	15
3 The business case	18
4 The benefits of reporting	20

Methodology – estimating a company's environmentally-sustainable profits

1 Overview	25
2 Aims and objectives of the methodology	26
3 The sustainability cost estimate – what does it actually mean?	27
4 How to get started	29
4.1 System boundaries – the application of the polluter pays principle	33
4.2 Sustainability targets and closing the 'sustainability gap'	35
4.3 Identification of impacts	36

4.4 Valuation of environmental impacts
– avoidance and restoration costs	38
4.5 Individual cost line entries
– estimation and worked examples	40
5 Impacts to air	40
5.1 Direct energy use: electricity consumption	40
5.2 Direct energy use: gas consumption	42
6 Direct production-related emissions	42
7 Transportation	43
7.1 Company cars	43
7.2 Haulage/distribution	43
7.3 Third party carriers	46
7.4 Aviation	46
8 Impacts to land	47
8.1 Disposal of waste to landfill	47
8.2 Contaminated land	49
9 Impacts to water	50
10 Providing for the restoration of natural capital	56
11 Conclusions	57

References and further information

Selected references and other sources of information	63
--	----

Appendices

Appendix 1 Disentangling the definitions
Sustainability and sustainable development	69
Appendix 2 The Forum's Five Capitals Model	71
Appendix 3 Data Entry (Green) Sheets	73
Appendix 4 Pro-forma expense form	81

List of boxes

Box 1:	The mainstreaming of environmental and sustainability issues – implications for directors and investor relations	5
Box 2:	The maintenance of natural capital: something is missing from corporate accounts	16
Box 3:	Overview of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Sustainability Reporting Guidelines	38
Box 4:	The use of avoidance and restoration costs in the valuation of environmental effects	39
Box 5:	Accounting for the environment – the experience of BSO Origin and Landcare Research (New Zealand) Ltd	52
Box 6:	The environmental impacts associated with the main gaseous emissions resulting from manufacturing enterprises	54

List of figures

Figure 1:	Pro-forma Environmental Financial Statement (EFS)	9
Figure 2:	The Dartford and Gravesham Special Project's Environmental Financial Statement	12
Figure 3:	Anglian Water Services adjusted profit and loss (highlights) for the three accounting years ending 31 March 1999, 2000 and 2001	28
Figure 4:	Pro-forma consolidated external environmental cost accounts for A Company PLC	30
Figure 5:	Wessex Water Services external environmental cost accounts for the year to 31 March 2001	32