Contents

List of Tables and Figures		1X
List of Vignettes		х
Acknowledgements		xi
1 Childhood, Peer Relations	hips and Peer Violence	1
Listening to children's voic	es	2
Perspectives on childhood		3
Children, young people and	i violence	4
Residential care for children	1	8
Bullying and peer violence	in residential settings	10
Common themes on peer v	iolence	21
The meaning of violence		22
Public/private dichotomy o	f violence	23
Gender and violence		23
The present study – research	n methods	24
Summary points		27
2 Mapping Peer Violence in	Children's Homes	29
Conceptualising violence		29
Young people's evaluation of	of peer violence and verbal attacks	-	30
Types and levels of violence	2	31
Physical violence		32
Physical non-contact violer	ice	36
Sexual violence		37
Verbal attacks and insults		39
Bullying		42
Staff evaluation of peer viol	ence and verbal attacks	44
Peer violence in the previou	is month	45
Peer violence in the past ye	ar	46
Physical non-contact violer		47
Bullying		50
Sexual violence		51
Verbal attacks and insults		54
Developing a continuum of	violence	56
Summary points		57

3	Young People's Perspectives on Violence	59
	'We have our own rules': children's cultures and the normalisation of violence	60
	'Seven months living here, you just get used to it':
	the importance of context	61
	'Hi, I'm Ramon and I run this place': 'pecking orders'
	and peer group hierarchies	63
	'He rules the place and bullies everyone': bullying
	as a 'natural' and inevitable peer group dynamic?	65
	The masculinisation of physical violence	67
	Challenging and transgressing passive femininities:
	girls and physical violence	68
	The sexualisation of female violence	68
	'I never hit him before he hits me': violence as social justice	69
	'Standing ground' and 'saving face': projecting, protecting and maintaining 'hard' masculinities	74
	'He acts like a two-year-old': age and immaturity as catalysts for violence	76
	Summary points	77
4	Staff Perspectives on Violence	79
	'They all know their little places': hierarchical
	peer group dynamics	80
	Gender and violence	87
	'Racist stuff just isn't allowed here': racial violence	93
	'The youngsters just hit whilst the older lot are more subtle about it all': age and violence	95
	'They've never been shown how to behave properly at home, so they just use violence to get through life': young people's backgrounds and understandings of violence	99
	Summary points	102
5	Shared and Different Understandings of Violence	104
3	The use of vignettes	104
	Physical attack – vignette A	106
	Psychological attack – vignette B	113
	Male on female sexual attack – vignette C	122
	Male on male sexual attack – vignette D	130
	Dominant discourses on violence	134
	Linking meaning and experience	136
	Summary points	138

Associated with Violence Policies and procedures Young people's assessments of policies and procedures Children's rights Young people's meetings Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports	6	Institutional and Organisational Factors
Policies and procedures Young people's assessments of policies and procedures Children's rights Young people's meetings Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 156 Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 167 Seesing support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 188 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 199 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			139
Young people's assessments of policies and procedures Children's rights Young people's meetings Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 166 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			140
Children's rights Young people's meetings Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 166 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			142
Young people's meetings Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			145
Referrals Size and structure of the building Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			146
Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports		*	149
Function of the children's home Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports		Size and structure of the building	154
Staffing levels Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			155
Relating organisational and structural factors to the violence continnum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			156
the violence continum Summary points 7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports		Relating organisational and structural factors to
7 Evaluating Working Practices Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 182 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			157
Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Peers as both oppressors and supports		Summary points	160
Seeking support and issues of disclosure Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Peers as both oppressors and supports	7	Evaluating Working Practices	161
Evaluations of staff interventions Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports	′	Seeking support and issues of disclosure	161
Summary points 8 Responding to Violence – Methods of Intervention Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports		Evaluations of staff interventions	167
Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points Ponclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			182
Sanction-based interventions Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points Ponclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports	0	Responding to Violence - Methods of Intervention	184
Physical restraint Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points Proactive working practices Summary p	0		184
Informal meetings Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 200 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports			187
Formal meetings Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 20. 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 199 190 190 190 190 190 190 190 190 19		•	189
Child protection procedures Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 20. 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 10 19 10 19 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10			190
Proactive working practices Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 20. 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 19. 20. 20. 20. 21.			191
Wider perspectives on reducing violence Summary points 20. 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 199 200 200 210 220 221 221 221 222 233 243 253 264 275 276 277 277 278 278 278 278 278 278 278 278			193
Summary points 20. 9 Conclusion Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20. 21.		Wider perspectives on reducing violence	199
Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20 21			202
Summary of the research Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20 21	_	Conductor	203
Young people's experience of peer violence in residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20 21	9		204 residential care Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20 21
Violence as a structured element of the group culture The gendered nature of violence Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 20 21		O 2 2 -	205
The gendered nature of violence 20 Seeing what really happens or what is expected? 20 Hierarchies and the pecking order 21 Peers as both oppressors and supports 21			206
Seeing what really happens or what is expected? Hierarchies and the pecking order Peers as both oppressors and supports 21		The gandered nature of violence	207
Hierarchies and the pecking order 21 Peers as both oppressors and supports 21		Socing what really happens or what is expected?	207
Peers as both oppressors and supports 21		Hierarchies and the necking order	210
reels as both oppressors and supports		Poors as both appressors and supports	21
			213
Justification narratives			214

viii Contents

215
216
219
220
221
224
225
227
229
231
231
231
231
233
233
234
235
248

List of Tables and Figures

Tables
2.1	Staff estimations of the impact of physical violence	45
5.1	Vignette sample	106
5.2	Perceptions of female culpability and the seriousness of sexual violence	127
6.1	Organisational factors and the violence continuum	158
6.2	Structural factors and the violence continuum	159
6.3	Sector and the violence continuum	159
6.4	Length of stay and the violence continuum	159
C1	Age and gender of young people	233
C2	Gender and ethnic origin of young people	233
C3	Grade and gender of staff	234
C4	Type of home by grade of staff	234
C5	Grade and ethnic origin of staff	234
Fig	ures
2.1	Diagrammatic representation of the violence continuum	57
6.1	Diagrammatic representation of the violence continuum	157

List of Vignettes

Physical attack – vignette A	106
Psychological attack – vignette B	113
Male on female sexual attack – vignette C	122
Male on male sexual attack – vignette D	130