

Contents

Acknowledgements

1	Introduction	1
2	Context	2
2.1	Key Concepts	2
2.2	Policy Developments	8
3	Adult Continuing Education and the Environmental Challenge	12
3.1	The Needs of Adult Learners	12
3.2	The Changing Shape of Adult Continuing Education	13
3.3	Relating Lifelong Learning to the Environment	15
4	Greening the Curriculum in Adult Continuing Education	17
4.1	Access and Progression	17
4.2	Flexible Modes of Study and Learning	18
4.3	Market Research	20
4.4	Partnerships	21
4.5	The Role of Consortia	23
4.6	Multidisciplinarity	24
4.7	Active Learning	24
4.8	Whole Institution Responses	25
5	Conclusions	28
	Appendix: Papers from the CEE/NIACE Seminar	31
	References	48
	Bibliography	50