

Contents

Preface	xiii
List of Contributors	xv
List of Abbreviations	xix

PART I GENERAL

1	The Implementation of the ISD and CAD in National Legal Systems	3
	Eddy Wymeersch
1.1	An overview	3
1.2	The inventory	3
1.3	Implementation techniques	6
1.4	Prudential regulations and prudential supervision	10
1.5	Transactional regulation and supervision	15
1.6	Comparative developments: prudential regulation and supervision	30
1.7	General patterns of transactional supervision	33
1.8	Specific fields of transactional supervision	34
1.9	Self-regulation versus public regulation	38
1.10	Functional regulation	40
1.11	Conclusion	40
	Appendix A: Directive 93/22/EEC on Investment Services and Capital Adequacy Directives. Notification to the European Commission of measures taken to bring the directives into effect	41
2	Banking and Investment Services: Implications of the New Financial Landscape	45
	Ross Cranston
2.1	Introduction	45
2.2	Regulatory implications	47
2.3	Facilitating banking and financial developments	54
2.4	Private law implications	60
2.5	Conclusions	63

3	Economics of Securities Markets Regulation: Some Current Issues	65
	Francesco Cesarini
3.1	General	65
3.2	The ISD and its implementation in Italy	68
3.3	Concluding remarks	70

PART II PRUDENTIAL RULES AND INSOLVENCY

4	Cross-border Compliance: Organisational Duties Imposed on National and International Investment Firms	73
	Uwe H. Schneider
4.1	The initial legal situation	73
4.2	The target of regulation by organisational rules in corporation law	74
4.3	Superimposing administrative law structural norms on company law	77
4.4	The superimposing of organisational duties under administrative law on those organisational duties imposed by corporation law	77
4.5	Organisational duties imposed by the Investment Services Directive on international investment firms	81
5	Practising Safer Lex: The Proper Domain of Property, Secured Transactions and Insolvency Laws in the Regulation of Intermediaries	85
	Charles W. Mooney Jr
5.1	Introduction	85
5.2	Laws governing transfer and security interests in investment property	86
5.3	Insolvency laws	89
5.4	Conclusion	93
6	Segregation of Securities and Insolvency under German Law	95
	Dorothee Einsele
6.1	General	95
6.2	Bona fide rights protection and the risk of illegal transactions	96
6.3	Problems of the 'co-ownership construction' in private international law and its risk for investors	98
6.4	Chances and risks of the German settlement system of securities traded and deposited abroad	101

7	Segregation of Assets and Insolvency under Italian Law	105
	Pier Giusto Jaeger
7.1	General	105
7.2	Legal rules on segregation	106
7.3	Judicial rulings	108
7.4	Implementation of the ISD in Italy	110

PART III CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

8	Rules of Conduct: Further Harmonisation?	115
	Johannes Köndgen
8.1	Introduction	115
8.2	General purpose, scope and classification of conduct of business rules	115
8.3	Harmonisation of conduct of business rules by the ISD: an interim judgment	117
8.4	The European constitutional framework for further harmonisation: after Maastricht	121
8.5	Is there a need for corrective harmonisation?	124
8.6	Conclusion: the intrinsic dynamics of minimum harmonisation	129
9	Is there a Need to Harmonise Conduct of Business Rules?	131
	Cristopher Cruickshank
9.1	Role of article 11 ISD	131
9.2	The state in which a service is provided	132
9.3	The case against harmonisation	133
10	Derivatives Sales: Private Law and the Impact of Regulatory Standards	135
	William Blair
10.1	Introduction	135
10.2	The nature of derivatives	136
10.3	Derivatives and risk	137
10.4	Regulatory structures	138
10.5	Regulatory rules	139
10.6	US initiatives	141
10.7	Best market practice	142
10.8	The nature of the obligation between bank and end-user	143
10.9	The principles in action	145
10.10	Conclusion	146

11	Conflicts of Interest: An English Problem?	149
	Barry A.K. Rider
11.1	Introduction	149
11.2	Conflicts of interest and duty	150
11.3	Integration and confrontation	152
11.4	Making the fiduciary pay	153
11.5	Attribution of knowledge	161
11.6	Of Chinese walls and things . . .	163
12	Conflicts of Interest: The Spanish Experience	165
	Aníbal Sánchez
12.1	Introduction	165
12.2	The former law	166
12.3	The new Securities Market Act	167
12.4	Conduct of business rules: the general background	169
12.5	Nature of the Spanish conduct rules	170
12.6	New perspectives: the fall of structural barriers	171
12.7	Conclusions	173

PART IV EXCHANGE COMPETITION

13	The Changing Microstructure of European Equity Markets	177
	Marco Pagano
13.1	Introduction	177
13.2	The background: a decade of competitive reform	178
13.3	The current picture: transaction costs in the competing markets	193
13.4	Likely future developments	200
14	Competition between Regulated Markets in London	205
	Stephen M. Schaefer
14.1	Introduction	205
14.2	Regulated markets and the principle of harmonisation: the case of the CAD	205
14.3	Transparency	208
14.4	Auction versus dealership markets	209
14.5	The ISD and competition between markets in London	211
15	Competition among European Exchanges: Recent Developments	213
	Ailsa Röell
15.1	Introduction	213
15.2	Effects of recent competitive pressures on stock exchanges	214
15.3	Future developments	217
15.4	Conclusions	223

16	Competition among Exchanges or Financial Systems?	225
	Marco Onado
16.1	Introduction	225
16.2	Nature and strength of competitive forces in banking and investment services	226
16.3	The position of national financial systems	230
16.4	Implications for financial regulation	236

PART V EXCHANGE REGULATION

17	Exchange Governance and Regulation: An Overview	245
	Guido Ferrarini
17.1	Introduction	245
17.2	Exchanges as firms	246
17.3.	Recent developments	247
17.4	Exchange ownership	251
17.5	Regulation and surveillance	255
17.6	Exchanges as markets: the European directives	258
17.7	Concentration and access	260
17.8	Transparency	264
17.9	Conclusions	266
18	A European Directive for Regulated Markets? Some Personal Views	269
	Andrew Whittaker
18.1	Introduction	269
18.2	The ISD and regulated markets	269
18.3	Need for a new European directive?	272
18.4	Conclusion	273
19	A European Directive for Regulated Markets? A French Reaction	275
	Fabrice Demarigny
19.1	Modernisation of Financial Activities Act of 2 July 1996	275
19.2	A European directive for regulated markets?	278
20	Regulation of the Relationship between European Union Stock Exchanges: Lessons from the United States	283
	Hal S. Scott
20.1	Introduction	283
20.2	The US National Market System	283
20.3	Does the European Union need NMS?	288
20.4	Conclusion	292

21	Derivatives Clearing Houses: The Regulatory Challenge	295
	Richard Dale
21.1	Introduction	295
21.2	Financial safeguards in derivatives clearing houses	296
21.3	The regulatory issues	300
21.4	The international regulatory response	306
21.5	Summary and conclusions	311

PART VI ENFORCEMENT AND TAXATION

22	The Enforcement of the European Regime for Investment Services in the Member States and its Impact on National Conflict of Laws	317
	Sergio M. Carbone and Francesco Munari
22.1	Introductory remarks	317
22.2	Directive 93/22 and its relevant aspects for conflict of laws issues	323
22.3	Choice of law implications of the legal framework set out in the ISD	327
22.4	Conflict of laws' exceptions to the broadest possible application of the home country law	340
22.5	Consumer protection issues in the host state	350
22.6	Some consequences of the favor offerentis on the implementation of the ISD	356
22.7	(Non)-conclusions: race to the bottom versus competition merits among legal systems	359
23	Cooperation among Supervisory Authorities under the ISD	363
	Carlo Biancheri
23.1	The importance of cooperation among supervisory authorities	363
23.2	Authorisation to conduct securities business and maintenance of the conditions	365
23.3	Inspections	368
23.4	Information and cooperation with other persons	369
23.5	Information and cooperation concerning markets	369
23.6	Conclusion	370
24	Cooperation between Supervisors	373
	Susanne Bergsträsser
24.1	General	373
24.2	IOSCO's role	373
24.3	The European directives	375
24.4	Memoranda of Understanding between supervisors	376

24.5	MoUs and the European directives	378
24.6	Other documents on cooperation	380
25	International Tax Aspects of Portfolio Investment	383
	Jaap van Hoorn Jr
25.1	Introduction	383
25.2	The issue	384
25.3	Domestic and international tax law	387
25.4	Tax harmonisation	390
25.5	Concluding remarks	392
	Index	393