

Contents

Figures and tables		viii
Acknowledgements		xi
1	Introduction	1
	Purpose of research study	2
	Background to study	2
	Background to the Act	4
	Aims and principles of the Act	11
	Partnership	15
	Methodology	20
2	Findings: satisfaction	29
	Section I: Overall satisfaction	30
	Section II: Met needs	38
	Summary	49
3	Findings: satisfaction revisited	51
	Section III: Unmet needs	51
	Section IV: Comfort in using services	68
	Summary	74
4	Findings: participation	77
	Parents' views on participation overall	77
	Parents' views on accommodation	83
	Children's views on participation overall	88

	Children's views on accommodation	91
	Register for disabled children	98
5	Findings: information	100
	Parents' views on information	100
	Children's views on information	106
	Dissemination of information by social services	108
	Methods of disseminating information	112
	Complaints procedures	116
	Summary	121
6	Discussion: responsibility	123
	Responsibility	123
	Truancy	129
	Delinquency	134
	Drug and alcohol abuse	138
	Housing	138
	Preventative responsibility	142
	Summary	143
7	Discussion: general matters	145
	Interagency co-operation	145
	Policies	147
	Family centres	153
	Social isolation	155
	Rescue and fresh start	157
	Social exclusion	159
	Relationship between natural parents and foster parents	161
	The use of relatives as carers	163
	Summary
8	Conclusions and recommendations	166
	Reactive prevention	167
	Poverty	168
	Strategies to help parents meet their own needs	169

Factors leading to dissatisfaction with services	172
Proactive prevention	180
Recommendations	182
Bibliography	187
Appendices	194

Figures and tables

Table 1.1	Respondents' gender	22
Table 1.2	Children's ages	23
Table 1.3	Parents' ages	23
Table 1.4	Categories of need: children	24
Table 1.5	Categories of need: parents	25
Table 1.6	Categories and ages of children	26
Table 1.7	Categories, ages and gender of children	26
Table 1.8	Ages and categories of parents	27
Table 1.9	Gender of parents by age and category	27
Table 2.1	Positive factors with respect to help in child-rearing	31
Table 2.2	Negative factors with respect to help in child-rearing	33
Table 2.3	Children's overall satisfaction by age	37
Table 2.4	Parents' met needs	39
Table 2.5	Need for which social workers provided emotional support	40
Table 2.6	Ages and categories of parents expressing satisfaction	42
Table 2.7	Parents' satisfaction by age and category	43
Table 3.1	Parents' unmet needs	52
Table 3.2	Children's unmet needs according to parents	56

Table 3.3	Children's unmet needs according to children	57
Table 3.4	Children's unmet needs identified by both parents and children	58
Table 3.5	Children's unmet needs identified solely by parents	63
Table 3.6	Children's unmet needs identified solely by children	66
Table 3.7	Factors making it difficult for parents to ask for help	69
Table 3.8	Whether children felt their social workers would help with personal problems	72
Table 3.9	Children's preferred confidants	73
Table 4.1	Parents' views on participation	78
Table 4.2	Parents' participation by age and category	79
Table 4.3	Types of decision in which parents did not participate	80
Table 4.4	Participation by parents of accommodated children	85
Table 4.5	Whether children felt they had a say in decisions	88
Table 4.6	Whether children felt their social workers listened to them	89
Table 4.7	Whether children felt their social workers took notice of what they said	89
Table 4.8	Whether children felt their social workers asked about things that affected them	91
Table 4.9	Whether social workers found out how children felt before last review	93
Table 4.10	Whether children believed they had been given the opportunity to tell people how they felt at their last review	93
Table 4.11	Whether children felt that people at the review had taken notice of what they said	94
Table 5.1	Services parents would like to know more about	102
Table 5.2	Whether children felt their social workers told them things they needed to know	106

Table 5.3	Steps being taken by local authorities to publish information about their own services	113
Table 5.4	Steps taken by SSDs to publish information about services provided by voluntary agencies	115
Table 5.5	Ways in which parents would make a complaint	118
Figure 6.1	Partnership model relating to service provision	127