

Contents

Tables	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction	xviii
Part I	OVERVIEW	1
1. The Family and Working Women during and after Socialist Industrialization and Ideology Barbara Łobodzińska		3
Part II	BULGARIA	47
2. Women in Bulgaria Bistra Anachkova		55
Part III	CZECH REPUBLIC AND SLOVAKIA	69
3. Women and Family—The Czech Version of Development and Chances for Improvement Marie Čermáková		75
4. Women's Equality, Work, and Family in the Czech Republic Alena Heitlinger		87

Part IV GERMANY

(FORMER GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC)

101

5. East German Women—Chief Losers in German Unification

Hanna Behrend

113

6. The Family in the German Democratic Republic from a Western Point of View

Barbara Ketelhut

123

Part V

HUNGARY

131

7. The Position of Hungarian Women in the Process of Regime Change

Katalin Koncz

139

Part VI

LITHUANIA

149

8. Women and Family in Lithuania

Irena Juozeliuniene and Vida Kanopiene

155

Part VII

POLAND

165

9. The Impact of Socioeconomic Restructuring on Polish Women

Anna M. Zajicek and Toni M. Calasanti

179

10. Women and Families in Poland: Pressing Problems and Possible Solutions

Jill M. Bystydzienski

193

Part VIII

ROMANIA

205

11. Participation of Women in the Workforce: The Case of Romania

Doina Pasca Harsanyi

213

Part IX

FORMER YUGOSLAVIA

219

12. Redomestication of Women and Democratization in Postsocialist Slovenia

Maca Jogan

229

13. Women and Work in Former Yugoslavia and Their Present Situation

Andjelka Milić

237

14. Women, Work, and Family in Former Yugoslavia Joy B. Reeves	245
Part X
CONCLUSION	259
15. Equal Opportunities: Obstacles and Remedies Barbara Łobodzińska	261
Appendix: Statistical Information on Central Eastern Europe	275
References	285
Index	301
About the Contributors	311

Tables

1-1 Political, Economic, and Social Main Components of Similarities and Differences in Central Eastern Europe Conditioned by the Past, the National Cultures, and the Progression of Industrialization and Socialist Economy	4
1-2 Vital Statistics in Eight Central Eastern European Countries: 1989-1991	10
1-3 Factors Lowering or Increasing Age at Marriage and Accelerating or Delaying Decisions to Marry in Central Eastern European Countries	17
1-4 Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Lithuania, Poland, Slovenia, Yugoslavia—Population Age Fifteen and Over by Educational Level and Gender: 1989-1991	20
1-5 Women in Labor Force and Women in Unemployment in Central Eastern European Countries, 1989-1991	23
1-6 Women's Employment by Economy Sectors in Czechoslovakia, Former GDR, Hungary, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, Slovenia, and Former Yugoslavia: 1989-1991	26
1-7 Women Employees in Selected Branches of the Economy—Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Lithuania, Poland, Romania: 1989-1992 (in Percent of Total Employment in Respective Categories)	28

1-8 Women's Monthly Average Wages in Selected Branches of the Economy and Occupations in Percentage of Men's Income (in Respective Categories): Former GDR and Poland	32
1-9 Full-Time Employment by Gender and Educational Level (in Percent): Former Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Lithuania, and Poland	34
1-10 Circumstances Fostering and Restraining Women's Equality in the Socialist and Postsocialist Societies	45
2-1 Occupations and Professions in Which the Majority of Men or Women Are Employed in Bulgaria	50
2-2 Bulgaria: Women Executives, Managers and Professionals of the Work-experienced Labor Force in 1989 and Women's Employment by Occupational Groups in 1991	51
2-3 Bulgaria and Hungary—Women's Share of Employment by Industry in 1991 and Employers' Gender Preference in Recruiting Skilled Production Workers	52
3-1 Czechoslovakia, Czech Republic, and Slovakia—University Students by Gender: 1991/1992	71
3-2 Czechoslovakia—Population Fifteen Years Old and Over by Gender and Educational Level: 1991	71
3-3 Czechoslovakia: Employees by Gender and Educational Level in 1991	72
3-4 Czechoslovakia, Czech Republic, and Slovakia—Women Employed in the Nationalized Economy by Branches of Industry: 1991	73
3-5 Czech Republic and Slovakia: Family, Women, and the Post-1989 Transformation Process	78
4-1 East Germany—Women University Students and Graduates in Percent of Total: 1951-1989	106
4-2 East Germany—Women Employed in the Nationalized Economy by Completed Education: 1988	106
4-3 East Germany—Women's Employment in Percent of Total Employment in Respective Branches of Industry and in Percent of Women's Employment: 1989	107

4-4 East Germany—Women in Managerial Positions by Branches of Industry: 1988	108
4-5 East Germany—Full-time Female Employees' Income in Percent of Men's Income, by Wage Categories (in GDR marks)	109
5-1 Gross Monthly Wages of Women Manual and Non-manual Workers in Hungary in 1991	137
5-2 Distribution of Population (Seven Years Old and Over) by Highest Educational Level and by Gender in Hungary: 1930-1990	142
5-3 Percentage of Employees in Hungary Among Adult Female and Male Population: 1949-1990	144
6-1 Lithuanian Population Fifteen Years Old and Over by Gender, Urban-rural Residence, and Educational Level in 1989	153
6-2 Selected Types of Occupations, Professions and Positions in Work-experienced Labor Force by Gender in Lithuania in 1989	153
6-3 Distribution of Lithuanian Men's and Women's Responses to the Question: "What Should a Married Woman Do If the Family Was Financially Well-provided For?"	163
7-1 Urban-rural Ratio of Polish Women per 100 Men in Productive and Postproductive Age Categories: 1991	167
7-2 Polish Families with Children by Number of Children and Urban-rural Residence in 1988	167
7-3 Polish Womanhood (Woman or Wife) in Public Perception	170
7-4 Polish Women University Students by Faculty: 1970/1971 and 1991/1992	174
7-5 Polish Women in Legal Professions: 1970-1981	174
7-6 Polish Women's Average Monthly Salaries in Selected Full-time Occupations, Professions, and Positions in the Work-experienced Labor Force in 1990 (in Polish Currency)	175

7-7 Polish Women's Motivation for Work in 1988	176
8-1 Romanian Employees in the National Economy by Gender and Branches of Industry in 1990	210
8-2 Romanian Teachers by Gender and Employment in 1989/1990	210
9-1 Slovenia: Population Fifteen Years Old and Over by Gender and Educational Level: 1991	224
9-2 Yugoslavia (Without Independent Republics): Graduate Students by Gender and Department: 1991	226
9-3 Women University Students by Faculty at Ljubljana University in Slovenia in 1990/91	231
9-4 Women Employees in Selected Industries in Yugoslavia	239
9-5 Characteristics of Selected Nationalities in Yugoslavia	250
9-6 Measures of Gender Inequality in Yugoslavia	252
A-1 Territory and Population of Eight Central Eastern European Countries: 1989-1992	276
A-2 Ethnic and Other Social Indicators in the Eight Central Eastern European Countries: 1990	278
A-3 Natural Resources and Raw Materials, Principal Agricultural Production, Principal Industrial Production, Exports, Imports in Nine Central Eastern European Countries: 1988	280
A-4 Gross National Product, Per Capita Income, Gross External Debt, Passenger Cars, Telephones, and Television Receivers in Seven Central Eastern European Countries: 1988	282
A-5 Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Poland: Selected Appliances and Motor Vehicles per 100 Households in 1988-1991	283