

LIST OF TABLES	vii
LIST OF FIGURES	xii
FOREWORD	xiii
1 A PORTRAIT OF HOMELESSNESS	1
2 HOMELESSNESS IN ENGLAND: Changing Responses and the Impact of Europe	13
3 THE COUNT: The Scale of Homelessness in London	31
4 THE FACES OF HOMELESSNESS: An Integrated Approach	39
5 THE STREET	55
6 HOSTELS	85
7 DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT OF HOSTELS	136

8	SQUATTING IN LONDON	161
9	HOMELESS PEOPLE LIVING IN HOTELS IN LONDON	192
10	BEGGING	211
11	A COMPARISON ACROSS SETTINGS	238
12	ROUTES TO A HOME	260
	BIBLIOGRAPHY AND REFERENCES	269

APPENDICES

METHODOLOGY	278
APPENDIX TWO	302
APPENDIX THREE	306
APPENDIX FOUR	307
QUESTIONNAIRES	308

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	324
-------------------------	-----

INDEX	330
--------------	-----

List of Tables

Chapter 2: Homelessness in England

2.1:	Homeless households: applications and acceptances	15
2.2:	Numbers claiming board and lodging payments	16
2.3:	Homeless households accepted by household composition	17
2.4:	Distribution of final household income, UK	18
2.5:	Proportions of individuals in households with below 80% of the average income by economic status	19
2.6:	Households by tenure, 1971 to 1989	21
2.7:	House completions 1977 to 1988	21
2.8:	Repossessions by Building Societies	22

Chapter 4: The Faces of Homelessness

4.1:	Age of respondents across four studies	41
4.2:	Last place before this one across sample	44
4.3:	Length of stay in last place across sample	45
4.4:	Age left home across settings	45
4.5:	Number of place have lived in across sample	46
4.6:	Last place called home across sample	47
4.7:	How long ago left place called home across sample	48
4.8:	A comparison of GHQ 12-item scores	51

Chapter 5: The Street

5.1:	Distribution of people in pilot survey	60
5.2:	Borough by borough	61
5.3:	Comparison of survey and census: Borough by borough	65
5.4:	Age of street sample	71
5.5:	Family status for street sample	72
5.6:	Employment status for street sample	72
5.7:	Education for street sample	73
5.8:	Birth place for street sample	73
5.9:	Length of stay for street sample	74
5.10:	Use of day centre by street sample	74
5.11:	Last place before this one for street sample	75
5.12:	Length of stay in last place for street sample	76
5.13:	Age left home for street sample	76
5.14:	Number of places have lived in	77
5.15:	Last place considered home	78
5.16:	After last place called home	78
5.17:	Length of time since left last place called home	79
5.18:	Meaning of home: importance	82
5.19:	Mean scores for home items for street sample	83
5.20:	Correlations of 'Place of My Own'	83

Chapter 6: The Experience of Hostels

6.1:	Results summary	91
6.2:	Hostel occupancy	92
6.3:	Summary of hostel residents (A)	93
6.4:	Summary of hostel residents (B)	94
6.5:	Estimated number of hostel bedspaces in London	95
6.6:	A comparison of hostel bedspaces	97
6.7:	Age of Salvation Army hostel residents	106
6.8:	Length of stay of Salvation Army hostel residents	106
6.9:	Rank order correlations of meaning of home items:	108
6.10:	Comparison of two groups of residents:	109
6.11:	Percentage agreement to meaning of home items:	111
6.12:	Percentage agreement to importance items:	112
6.13:	Age of hostel residents	113
6.14:	Family status of hostel residents	114
6.15:	Employment status of hostel residents	115
6.16:	Education qualifications of hostel residents	115
6.17:	Country of origin of hostel residents	116
6.18:	Ethnicity of hostel residents	116
6.19:	Length of stay of hostel residents	117
6.20:	Use of day centres	117

6.21:	Age that hostel residents left home	118
6.22:	Number of places hostel residents have lived in	119
6.23:	Hostel Residents on housing waiting list	120
6.24:	Evaluation of qualities of the hostel by hostel residents	121
6.25:	Percentage importance of aspects of home	123
6.26:	Percentage agreement to locus of control	124
6.27:	Attitudes towards hostels	125
6.28:	Correlations between selected questions:	126
6.29:	Attitudinal questionnaire:	128
6.30:	View of residents by staff and residents	130
6.31:	Perceived control of residents' actions	131
6.32:	Table of significance means across staff and residents	132
6.33:	Self esteem of residents by staff and residents	132
6.34:	Importance of home for residents	133
6.35:	Role of staff in hostels	134
6.36:	Desired role of staff in hostels	134

Chapter 8: Squatting in London

8.1:	Ownership	166
8.2:	Types of dwelling	166
8.3:	Utilities	166
8.4:	Gender	167
8.5:	Mean ages in first two studies	168
8.6:	Age in final study	168
8.7:	Marital status	168
8.8:	Employment status	169
8.9:	Voluntary work	170
8.10:	Ethnicity	170
8.11:	Country of origin	171
8.12:	Education	171
8.13:	Trade qualifications	172
8.14:	Average number of times squatted previously	173
8.15:	Housing waiting lists	173
8.16:	Length of stay in squat	174
8.17:	Types of previous three tenures	175
8.18:	Area of last three tenures	176
8.19:	How squatters heard of squat	176
8.20:	On the street within six months	177
8.21:	Reasons for squatting	178
8.22:	Resources needed	178
8.23:	Evaluation of squats and views of squatters	180
8.24:	Compute scores	185
8.25:	Compute scores for ex-squatters	189

8.26: Comparison of length of stay in last place	190
--	-----

Chapter 9: Living in Hotels in London

9.1: Hotels contacted	197
9.2: Individual hotels residents by household type	199
9.3: Households in hotels by type of household	200
9.4: A comparison of views of hotel and hostel staff	206
9.5: Correlations of hotel and hostel staff responses	206

Chapter 10: Begging

10.1: Gender of sample	213
10.2: Age	214
10.3: Where beggars lived	215
10.4: Types of begging strategies	216
10.5: Who gave to beggars	222
10.6: Origin of beggars	224
10.7: Time spent in London	225
10.8: Age beggars left home or Local Authority care	226
10.9: Work experience	227
10.10: Beggars who have been in care	230
10.11: Known charges	232

Chapter 11: A Comparison Across Settings

11.1: Age across settings	239
11.2: Gender across settings	239
11.3: Family status across settings	240
11.4: Employment status across settings	241
11.5: Voluntary work across settings	241
11.6: Education across settings	242
11.7: Trade qualifications across settings	242
11.8: Country of birth across settings	243
11.9: Ethnicity across settings	243
11.10: Length of stay across settings	244
11.11: Use of day centres	244
11.12: Last place before this one	246
11.13: Length of stay there	246
11.14: Age left home	247
11.15: Number of places have lived in	248
11.16: Last place called home	249
11.17: Where after that	249
11.18: How long ago	250
11.19: Area now	250

11.20: Prior area	251
11.21: Housing list	251
11.22: Health scores	253
11.23: Home scores	253
11.24: Evaluation items	254
11.25: Self esteem and view of others	255
11.26: Importance of home scores	255
11.27: Importance of aspects of home scores	256
11.28: Locus of control items	257