

CONTENTS

Introduction	5
I. Deepening the analysis – to find more efficient solutions	6
i) Enhancing the effectiveness of active labour market policies	7
ii) Making work pay: reforming tax and benefit systems	7
iii) Setting macroeconomic policy appropriately taking into account the interactions with structural policies	9
iv) Nurturing entrepreneurship.....	11
v) Reaping the benefits of technological change	13
vi) Skills and training	15
II. Implementing the Strategy demands vision and resolve	17
III. Conclusions	20

List of Boxes and Charts

Box 1. The Jobs Strategy Recommendations	6
Box 2. Making Active Labour Market Policies more Effective	8
Box 3. Making Work Pay; Guidelines for Reforming Tax-Benefit Systems	10
Box 4. Entrepreneurship and Job Creation; Some Preliminary Conclusions	12
Box 5. Technology, Productivity and Job Creation; Areas for Policy Action	14
Box 6. Making Lifelong Learning a Reality for All	16
Chart 1. Growth in total employment	22
Chart 2. Unemployment	23
Chart 3. Incidence of long-term unemployment	24
Chart 4. Earnings of high-paid male workers relative to low-paid male workers	24