
Contents

I. INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

1. Why the Concern for Victims? 3
Diane Sank and Brian Sank Firschein

II. PERSPECTIVES ON VICTIMS

2. Survivors of Crime 27
Marlene A. Young
3. Thoughts about Victims of Crime and Injustice and the Nature of Justice 43
Max Hamburg
4. The Concept of Victimhood 53
James E. Bayley

III. CRIME

- A. Victims and Society
5. Victim Compensation: The Joint Responsibility of the Criminal and Society—A Social-Contract Approach ... 67
Rodolphe J. A. de Seife

- | | | |
|---------------------------|---|-----|
| 6. | Street-Crime Victim Compensation, Retributive Justice, and Social-Contract Theory | 87 |
| | Gilbert S. Fell | |
| 7. | Rescuing Victims—from Social Theory | 101 |
| | Tibor R. Machan | |
| 8. | A Systems Science Approach to Crime, Criminal Justice, and Victim Justice | 117 |
| | John T. Chu | |
| 9. | African-Americans, Crime Victimization, and Political Obligations | 141 |
| | Bill Lawson | |
|
B. Individual Victims | | |
| 10. | The Rights of Child Abuse Victims: Philosophical Problems | 161 |
| | Marie-Louise Friquignon and Willavene Wolf | |
| 11. | Victimology and Blaming the Victim: The Case of Rape | 171 |
| | Susan R. Peterson | |
| 12. | Victims in Seventeenth-Century Witchcraft Trials ... | 179 |
| | Albert G. Hess | |
| 13. | Perpetrators of Violent Crime as Potential Victims of Research in Prison | 197 |
| | Mary Ellen Waithe | |

- C. Corporate or Institutional Victims
14. Computer Crime and Victim Justice 217
John T. Chu
15. Patient–Nurse and Nurse–Patient Abuse: The Well-Kept Secret 235
Elsie L. Bandman and Bertram Bandman
16. Justice for Health Consumers and Providers 249
Bertram Bandman and Elsie L. Bandman

IV. INJUSTICE

Victims of Government Injustice

17. Victims of Genocide 271
Burton M. Leiser
18. Weapons Control Laws: Gateways to Victim Oppression and Genocide 295
David I. Caplan
19. Behind Barbed Wire: The Wartime Incarceration of the Japanese-Americans 315
Michio Kaku
20. The Law and Morality of War Crimes Trials 333
Sander Lee

V. OTHER PROBLEMS AND PROPOSED SOLUTIONS

21. Victims and Arms in Classical Legal Philosophy 359
Stephen P. Halbrook
22. Is Gun Control Legislation a Solution for Protecting
Victims? 371
Joseph G. Grassi
23. Why Retributivists Should Care about Deterrence . . 379
Douglas N. Husak
24. The Controversy over Shared Responsibility: Is
Victim-Blaming Ever Justified? 395
Andrew Karmen
25. Preferring Punishment of Criminals over Providing for Victims 409
Roger Wertheimer

VI. EPILOGUE: AFTERTHOUGHTS

26. What Hope for Victims? The Need for New
Approaches and for New Priorities 425
Diane Sank
- Help for Victims: Organizations and Resources 439
- Index 463