

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Direct Control, the State, and the Large Firm	33
3	The Manufacturing Conception of Control	75
4	The Sales and Marketing Conception of Control	116
5	The Emergence of the Celler-Kefauver Act, 1938-1950	161
6	The Impact of the Celler-Kefauver Act, 1948-1980	191
7	The Finance Conception of Control	226
8	Diversification in Large Firms	259
9	The Social Construction of Efficiency	295
Appendix A	Industrial Location of Cartels and Mergers	317
Appendix B	Survival of Merged Firms, 1895-1919	322
Appendix C	The Data Set	328
Appendix D	Models for the 100 Largest Firms, 1919-1979	339
Appendix E	Antitrust Enforcement and Mergers, 1950-1980	365
	Notes	371
	Bibliography	375
	Index	385