
CONTENTS

FOREWORD	7
Part I INTRODUCTION	9
1 Overview	11
2 Data and measurement instruments	21
Part II IDEOLOGICAL SEGMENTATION	25
3 Depillarization and intergenerational cultural change	27
Part III AGE-GROUPS IN PUBLIC OPINION	55
4 Attitudes of youth	57
5 Attitudes of the elderly	71
6 Mutual perceptions and distributive preferences of younger and older people	91
7 Beliefs about care for the elderly and 'the caring society'	103
8 Young urban professionals: the Delli Carpini and Sigelman thesis	117
Part IV AUTHORITARIANISM AND SOCIAL DISCRIMINATION	131
9 Authoritarianism and socio-economic differentiation: the Lipset thesis	133
10 Negative stereotypes of the unemployed: the significance of authoritarianism	151
11 AIDS beliefs: individual risks and authoritarian attitudes	165
12 Racial attitudes and authoritarianism: the Billig and Cramer thesis	191
Part V THE NETHERLANDS IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE	209
13 Macro-levels and micro-patterns of attitudes towards income inequality	211
REFERENCES	235