

Contents

Contributors	ix
Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction	xix
PART 1
Principles Governing the Delivery of Psychiatric Services in Jails and Prisons	1
Introduction to the Principles	1
Scope	1
The Legal Context	2
Access to Mental Health Care and Treatment	4
Adequate and Appropriate Access to Care	4
Access to Care in Segregation Units	4
Quality of Care	6
Education and Training	8
Cultural Awareness	10
Informed Consent	11
Confidentiality	11
Suicide Prevention	14
Mental Health Treatment	15
Referral for Mental Health Treatment	17
Mental Health Evaluations	17
Therapeutic Milieu	17
Discharge Planning	18

Ethical Issues	19
Research	24
Administration and Administrative Issues	25
Interprofessional Relationships	27
Psychiatric Services in Court and Other Settings	28
Jail Diversion and Alternatives to Incarceration	29
 PART 2
Guidelines for Psychiatric Services in Jails and Prisons	31
Introduction	31
Jails	31
Identification	32
Screening and Referral	32
Brief Mental Health Assessment	35
Comprehensive Mental Health Evaluation	36
Mental Health Treatment	37
Discharge Planning	38
Prisons	39
Identification	40
Screening and Referral	40
Brief Mental Health Assessment	43
Comprehensive Mental Health Evaluation	44
Mental Health Treatment	45
Discharge Planning	46
 PART 3
Special Applications of the Principles and Guidelines	47
Introduction	47
Substance Use Disorders	48
Co-occurring Disorders	50
HIV/AIDS	51
Women	52
Youth in Adult Correctional Facilities	54

Geriatrics and Related Issues	56
Mental Retardation/Developmental Disability	58
 Conclusion	 61
Appendix: Selected Activities of the American Psychiatric Association	63
Suggested Readings	69
Index	71