

Contents

Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	x
1. Current Knowledge About Children of Battered Women	1
Witnessing Violence	1
Psychological Maltreatment	3
Children in Battered Women's Shelters	3
The Effects on Children of Witnessing
Woman Battering	5
Intervention With Children of Battered Women	11
2. Goals of the Children's Group Program	15
Breaking the Secret	17
Learning to Protect Oneself	19
Having a Positive Experience	20
Strengthening Self-Esteem	22
Achievement of Group Goals	23
Healing and Stressful Influences of the Group	23
Family Involvement in Group	26
3. Intake and Assessment	29
Counselor Requirements for Assessing Children	30
The Referral	32

The Phone Interview	34
The Intake Interview	39
The Assessment	54
Group Composition	63
Conclusion	66
4. Group Sessions	67
The Group Program	67
Orientation for Parents and Children	72
Week One: Getting to Know Each Other	77
Week Two: What Is Abuse?	89
Week Three: Anger	95
Week Four: When Parents Fight	104
Week Five: It's Not Always Happy at My House	110
Week Six: Sharing Personal Experiences With Violence	113
Week Seven: Touch	117
Week Eight: Assertiveness	123
Week Nine: Protection Planning	130
Week Ten: Review and Good-Bye	135
Family Session	141
5. Parenting Group	147
Introduction: General Considerations	148
The Effects on Children of Witnessing Violence	151
The Effects of Early Life Experiences on Parenting	152
Child Development	154
Parents' Rights/Children's Rights	155
Discipline Versus Punishment	158
Self-Esteem in Children	160
Communication	161
Sibling Relationships	163
Changing Families	164
Conclusion	167
Appendix A: Intake and Assessment Forms	169
Children's Service Request Form	170
Phone Interview Form	171
Permission to Treat Minors Form	175
Release of Information Form	176
Developmental Information Form	177
Parent Interview Form	179

Child Intake Form (ages 4-6)	188
Child Intake Form (ages 7-9)	194
Child Intake Form (ages 10-12)	201
Appendix B: Desired Outcomes Evaluation Form (sample)	208
References	211
Index	217
About the Authors	225