

List of Illustrations and Tables vii

Preface ix

Note on Currency Exchange Rates xi

1. Introduction: Conceptualizing Chinese Migration in a Global Age 1

Case 1. The Luo Family: Workers in Italy, Market Traders in Hungary 29

2. Old and New Transnational Villages in Fujian 37

Case 2. A Yong: A Restaurant Worker in Kent, England 66

3. Getting Out, Getting In, and Moving On:
An Ethnographic View 69

Case 3. The Wu Siblings: Workshop Owners in Italy 102

4. Work and Life in Europe 107

Case 4. He: A Businessman in London 153

5. Fujianese Transnational Practices and Politics 162

6. Conclusion: Rethinking Chinese Migration and Globalization 193

Notes 205

Chinese Names and Terms 225

References 229

Index 245

Illustrations and Tables

MAPS

1. China	xii
2. Fujian province	xiii
3. Europe	xiv

FIGURES

1. Village lane, village A, paved with contributions from overseas Chinese	64
2. Migrant house, village A	64
3. The overseas Chinese building, village A	65
4. A Chinese peddler in front of the Florence cathedral	149
5. A Fujianese workshop in the Naples area	150
6. Four Tigers Market, Budapest, Hungary	151
7. Fujianese looking for work at the "pavilion," London Chinatown	152

TABLE

1. Migrants from village A by Destination	47
---	----