

Contents

The Contributors	vii
Preface	x

Part I Introduction

✕ 1	Social Services and their Users: The Role of Communication, Co-operation and Responsiveness Hans-Joachim Schulze and Wolfgang Wirth	3
-----	--	---

Part II Institutional and Organizational Perspectives

2	Networking on the Level of Co-ordination Mechanisms: Perspectives for the Shaping of the Social and Health Services in West and East Germany Friedhart Hegner	17
3	Interorganizational Dimensions of Service Delivery and their Impact on the Quality of Services Dieter Grunow	35
4	Contracting and Accountability: The British Experience Nicholas Deakin	48
5	When Non-social Public Services Take Care Gilles Jeannot	63
6	How to Improve Responsiveness of Social Services at the Local Level Jaap de Visser	76
7	Registration of Activities of Youth Service Organizations as a Means to Improve Responsiveness Anja Smorenburg	88

Part III Interactional and Evaluative Perspectives

8	Fragmentation of Social Policy and Utilization of Social Services: The Case of Handicapped Children in Germany Eva-Katrin Maier	111
9	Improving Communication, Co-operation and Responsiveness in Multi-problem Families Bas Vogelvang	130
10	Communication and Co-operation Between Parents and Professional Care-Givers in Day Care Frits A. Goossens	149
11	Two Patterns of Co-production: Effects of Compliance and Co-operation in After-care Services for Young Offenders Wolfgang Wirth	171
12	Parents' Satisfaction with a Treatment Centre for Toddlers and Preschoolers Suus M. J. van Hekken, Heleen Keijzer and Hans-Joachim Schulze	184
13	Citizen Satisfaction and Complaints: A Study of Citizens' Response To Service Supply in Six Norwegian Municipalities Hild Stuland Larsen	205

Part IV Integrative Conclusion

14	Individual Clients in International Networks: Perspectives of Social Service Integration and User Involvement in Europe Wolfgang Wirth and Hans-Joachim Schulze	221
----	--	-----

Name Index	238
Subject Index	243