

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgments	xi
-----------------------------	----

PART I. Introduction

1. Racial Diversity in the Land of Majority Rule	3
Who Are the Minorities?	4
Demographic Projections	7
The Impact of Future Growth	12
From Melting Pot to Multiculturalism	14
Racial and Cultural Minorities: An International Phenomenon	16
Does the Term Minorities Describe the Present and Future?	19
Racial Diversity: Problem or Opportunity?	20
Media and Diversity: Maximizing Opportunity?	21
Analysis	29
2. Communication Media and Society	33
Functions of Mass Communication in Society	34
Mass Audience, Mass Media, and Race	38
Mass Media and the Collective Consciousness	41
Do the Media Have an Effect?	44
News Coverage and Mob Violence: The Zoot Suit Riots of 1943	45
Bigotry and Bigots Reinforced: The Case of Archie Bunker	50
Television Teaches: Effects of Black Portrayals on Children	53
Media Do Affect Society	56

PART II. Entertainment Media Portrayals

3. From the Live Stage to Hollywood Before World War II	61
Native Americans	62
Black Americans	64
Latinos	65
Asian Americans	67
Beginnings of Mass Entertainment: The Live Stage	69
Racialism in the Movies	72
Hollywood's Heyday: 1930-1945	75
Analysis	84
4. Movies and TV From World War II to the Brink
of a New Century	86
People of Color in the Television Age	94
Analysis	105

PART III. Nonentertainment Media Portrayals

5. Advertising: The Media's Not-So-Silent Partner	109
Advertising and Media in the Land of Plenty	111
Advertising and People of Color	114
Courtship of Spanish Gold and the Black Market	125
How Loud Is the Not-So-Silent Partner's Voice?	132
6. Public Relations: An Opportunity to Influence the Media	139
Public Relations Influence on the News Media	142
Diversity in Public Relations	144
Diversity Practices in Public Relations Education	147
A Public Relations Education Diversity Agenda	147
Exclusionary Phase	152
7. The Press: Adding Color to the News	150
Exclusionary Phase	152
Threatening-Issue Phase	153
Confrontation Phase	155
Stereotypical Selection Phase	156
Multiracial Coverage Phase	158
Obstacles to Multiracial News	159
Newsroom Policy and Race	161
Analysis	165

PART IV. Strategies for Coping

8. History: Journalism's Colorful Firsts	171
Communication Before the Europeans	171

Early Printing in America	174
The First Latino Newspaper: El Misisipi (1808)	177
The First Black Newspaper: Freedom's Journal (1827)	181
The First Native American Newspaper: Cherokee Phoenix (1828)	184
The First Asian Newspaper: The Golden Hills' News (1851?)	189
Similarities in the Forgotten First Newspapers	194
9. Access: Developing a Multicultural Workforce	198
Film and Television Entertainment Industries	199
News Media	203
Recruitment and Retention	205
Analysis	212
10. Advocacy: Pressuring the Media to Change	214
Broadcasting	219
Newspapers	222
The Multimedia Approach	224
Advocacy in Education	226
Analysis	227

PART V. Conclusion

11. Class Communication in Multicultural America	233
Factors Forming the Future	235
Growth of Racial Diversity	236
Technological Changes in Communication Media	239
Continued Audience Segmentation and Targeting	244
Communication Media and the Segmented Society	246
Race, Culture, and Class Communication	252
From Mass Communication to Class Communication	254
Class Communication: Losing the Glue	259
Suggested Readings	263
Index	265
About the Authors	273