

CONTENTS

PART 1 Characteristics of Juvenile Delinquency 1

- 1 The Nature and Extent of Delinquency 3
The Differential Treatment of Juvenile and Adult Offenders 7
The Status Offender 9
The Extent of Delinquency: Statistical Trends 15
- 2 The Juvenile Court 27
Social Perceptions 28
Self-Concept 29
The Juvenile Court System 30
The Court Process 32
"Get Tough" Diversion: From Juvenile to Adult Court 41
The Juvenile Court, Due Process, and the Adversarial Legal System 45
The Adversarial versus the Inquisitorial Court Approach 50
- 3 Delinquent Personality Types 52
The Socialized Delinquent 55
The Neurotic Delinquent 61
The Psychotic Delinquent 63
The Sociopathic Delinquent 68
- 4 Social Class and Delinquency 83
Theory and Research 84
Lower-Class Culture as a Generator of Delinquency 86
Self-Reporting Studies, Social Class, and Delinquency 89
Some Explanations of Middle-Class Delinquency 93
Class Differences and Delinquency: Two Portraits 95

PART 2 The Juvenile in a Violent Society 105

- 5 Violence Against Children and Its Impact on Their Delinquent Behavior 107
The Sociocultural Climate of Violence in American Society 108
The Mass Media Impact on Juvenile Violence: Research Findings 117
Child Abuse, the Exploitation of Children, and Juvenile Delinquency 124
The Impacts of Child Abuse: Runaways, Suicidal Tendencies, and Youth Violence 134
Summary 137
- 6 Patterns of Delinquency Violence 139
"Normal" Juvenile Violence 140
School Murders 143
The Impact of Guns on Delinquent Violence 147
Vandalism as Violence 156
The Rise and Impact of "Senseless Violence" 160
A Paradigm of Patterns of Violence 167

PART 3 The Gang Problem 175

- 7 The Contemporary Gang Problem 177
 - Types of Gangs* 178
 - Violent Black and Chicano Gangs—In and Out of Prison* 181
 - Gangsters and Gangs in Prison* 194
 - A Common Bond: The Macho Syndrome and the Machismo Characteristic of Gangsters* 198
- 8 Theoretical Viewpoints on Gangs 205
 - Major Theorists* 206
 - The Violent Gang as a Near-Group* 217
 - Research Issues in the Development of Gang Theory* 217
 - What Is a Gang?* 221
 - Gang Structure: The Gang as a Near-Group* 221
 - Factors That Define the Violent Group as a Near-Group* 224

PART 4 Substance Abuse 235

- 9 Growing Up in a Substance-Abusing Society 237
 - Juvenile Substance Abuse* 238
 - Defining the Substance Abuser* 241
 - Patterns and Trends in Substance Abuse by Delinquents* 244
 - The Sociocultural Context of Substance Abuse by Delinquents* 246
 - The Effects of Quasi-Legal Substance Abuse* 247
 - Female Substance Abuse and Delinquency* 254
- 10 Drugs Used, Their Impact, and Treatment Issues 265
 - Alcohol* 266
 - Marijuana* 270
 - Hallucinogenic Drugs* 277
 - PCP: "Angel Dust"* 281
 - Heroin* 282
 - Cocaine* 285
 - Treatment Approaches for Juvenile Substance Abusers* 289
 - Basic Issues to Be Confronted in the Treatment of Juvenile Substance Abusers* 295

PART 5 The Causes of Crime and Delinquency 299

- 11 The Family and the Socialization Process 301
 - Family Impacts on Delinquency* 302
 - The Socialization Process* 304
 - Criminogenic Families and Delinquency* 308
 - Research on the Family and Delinquency* 316

12 Early Theories of Crime and Delinquency Causation and Their Contemporary Development 331

Religion and Demonology 332

Crime and Punishment—The Classical School of Criminology 333

The “Born Criminal” Theory—Physiological Explanations 337

The Psychoanalytic View 341

Reinforcement Theory 346

Economic Determinism 347

Radical Marxist Theories 349

Cultural Conflict Theories 352

George Vold on Group Conflict Theory 353

Capitalism, Feminism, and Delinquency 354

13 Sociological Causation Theories 356

Emile Durkheim on Crime and Delinquency 357

Robert Merton on Anomie and Delinquency 359

Richard Cloward and Lloyd Ohlin on Anomie and Delinquency 361

Strain Theory: Ronald Akers and Robert Agnew 364

Albert Cohen: Delinquent Subcultures and Delinquency 365

William Kvaraceus and Walter Miller on the Subculture of Delinquency 367

Herbert Bloch and Arthur Neiderhoffer: The Adolescent Striving for Adulthood 368

Donald R. Taft and Ralph England on the Sociocultural Forces That Cause Delinquency 370

Milton Barron on American Culture and the Criminogenic Society 371

Walter Reckless on Containment Theory 372

Labeling Theory and Its Impact on Delinquency 373

Edwin Sutherland and Donald Cressey: Differential Association Theory 377

Ronald Akers’ Social Learning Theory 381

Travis Hirschi: Social Bonding 384

Clarence R. Jeffery: Social Alienation and Criminality 386

The Yablonsky Causation Theory: A Social-Psychological View 389

Application of Theory to Treatment Approaches 394

PART 6 The Prevention, Treatment, and Control of Delinquency 397

14 Community Treatment Programs for Delinquents 399

Community Child Guidance and Area Programs for Delinquency Prevention 401

The Adult-Youth Association 403

The Role of Local Citizen Leaders in Community Projects: Two Examples 406

The Detached Gang Worker Approach 410

Halfway Houses and Community Treatment 414

Probation and Parole 415

- 15 Custodial Institutions for Delinquents 424
 - Short-Term Detention Institutions* 425
 - Detention Camps* 426
 - Boot Camps* 429
 - Long-Term Custodial Institutions* 432
 - Evaluations of Custodial Institutions* 441
 - Community-Based Mental Hospitals for Juveniles: A New Direction* 448
- 16 Treatment Methods and Strategies Utilized in Community Prevention Projects and Custodial Institutions 454
 - Individual Counseling and Therapy* 455
 - Reality Therapy* 460
 - Group Therapy* 463
 - Guided Group Interaction* 465
 - Transactional Analysis* 469
 - The Encounter Group Process for Treating Drug Abusers* 469
 - Psychodrama and Role Training* 475

PART 7 Therapeutic Communities: An Innovative Method for the Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency 489

- 17 The History, Methodology, and Development of the Therapeutic Community Approach 491
 - Therapeutic Communities for Socializing Delinquents* 497
 - Group Methods Utilized in a Therapeutic Community* 502
 - An Analysis of the Therapeutic Community Methodology by an Ex-Addict: Zev Putterman* 509
- 18 The Therapeutic Community, the Experience Therapist, and Social Systems for Treating the Delinquency Problem 518
 - Transformation from Gangster to Experience Therapist* 521
 - The Experience Therapist's Role in the Creation and Administration of Therapeutic Communities* 526
 - The Social Structure of the Therapeutic Community* 542
 - A Summary of the Differences Between the Social Structure of TCs and Traditional Correctional Institutions* 553
 - The Social Vaccine Concept in Treating the Delinquency Problem* 556

Appendix: Juvenile Delinquency Arrest Statistics, 1997 559

References 569

Subject Index 579