

Contents

Vol. II

WORK CULTURE AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

25. Work Culture in India: An Overview	393
26. Administrative Morality	405
27. Culture and Values in Public Administration	421
28. New Administrative Ethics	426
29. People's Empowerment	432
30. Development Administration: An Overview	442
31. Public Administration and the Democratic Upsurge	458
32. Changing Administrative Values in India	462
33. Management Development in Public Administration	476
34. Globalisation, Liberalisation and the Welfare State	483
35. Indian Bureaucracy — Facing the Future	489
36. Political Control of Bureaucracy in India	500
37. The Art of Administration	516
38. The Reforming Indian Administration	526
39. Law and Order Administration with Special Reference to Terrorism	550
40. Administration and the Public	580
41. Government and Administration	596
42. State Administration in India	622
43. Whither District Government?	636
44. District Officer in India: Agent for Change?	645

45. Social Bases of Administrative Culture	661
46. Imperial and Modern Administration	676
47. Administrative Theology: Dharma of Public Officials	683
48. Single-line Administration	696
49. Administration of Mountain Regions	701
50. Decentralising Administrative Machinery for Development Needs	712
51. Local Administration	722
52. Ethics in Public Administration	737
53. Politics of Crime, Corruption and Waste, Caste and Creed	748
54. Stemming the Tide of Corruption	758
55. Ethics in Public Life—Some Observations	763
56. Ethics and Administration	767
57. Ethics and Accountability	781
58. Evolving Public Administration	812
59. Education and Training for the Public Service	829
60. Administration and the Courts	841