

Contents

About the Contributors	v
Chapter 1: Introduction: Meeting the Challenges of Residential Child Care in the 21st Century	1
Part One: The Policy Context
Chapter 2: Social Exclusion and Social Inclusion: Themes and Issues in Residential Child Care Andrew Kendrick	7
Chapter 3: Residential Child Care: Becoming a Positive Choice David Crimmens and Ian Milligan	19
Part Two: Difference and Diversity
Chapter 4: Residential Care for Black Children Adele Jones and Delsierene Waul	31
Chapter 5: Thinking Beyond 'Diversity': Black Minority Ethnic Children in Scotland Satnam Singh	45
Chapter 6: Dismantling the Barriers: Giving a Voice to Disabled Young People in Residential Care Moyra Hawthorn	57
Part Three: The Voice of Children and Young People
Chapter 7: Let's Face It! Young People Tell us How it is Jane Whiteford	71
Chapter 8: Child-Centred Residential Care: The Blueprint Project Jill Millar	83

Chapter 9:	The Future Direction of Inspection	93
	Roger Morgan

Part Four: Group Care Theory and Practice

Chapter 10:	Resilience and Residential Care for Children and Young People	105
	Robbie Gilligan
Chapter 11:	Rethinking Residential Child Care: A Child and Youth Care Approach	115
	Mark Smith
Chapter 12:	An Outsider’s View of the Inside	127
	Ruth Emond
Chapter 13:	Just a Game? The Therapeutic Potential of Football	137
	Laura Steckley
Chapter 14:	New Developments in Care Planning for Children in Residential Care	149
	Alison Williams

Part Five: Improving the Educational Attainments of Looked After Children and Young People

Chapter 15:	Education and Residential Child Care in England: A Research Perspective	163
	Isabelle Brodie
Chapter 16:	Still Room for Improvement? The Educational Experiences of Looked After Children in Scotland	173
	Kirstie Maclean and Graham Connelly

Part Six: Locking up Children and Young People Who Offend

Chapter 17:	The Dismal State of the Secure Estate	186
	John Pitts

Index		198
--------------	--	------------