

Contents

Introduction 1

Make Retention a Core Strategy

Why Retention Should Become a Core Strategy Now21

Paul Michelman

Aligning Human Capital
with Business Strategy34

Perspectives from Thought Leaders

Cassandra A. Frangos

Employee Retention46

What Managers Can Do

How to Keep Your Company's Star
Employees62

Edward Prewitt

Do People Want to Work for You?70

Loren Gary

Engage Your Workers

Whose Job Is Employee Satisfaction?83

Angelia Herrin

How Great Managers Manage People90

Paul Michelman

How to Coach Your Employees94

Martha Craumer

Employee Recognition and Reward
with Bob Nelson104

Real Empowerment?
Manage the Boundaries109

Alan Randolph

Match Techniques to Employee Types

Keys to Retaining Your Best Managers
in a Tight Job Market117

Marie Gendron

Why Women Leave—And What Corporations
Can Do About It127

Kristen B. Donahue

Managing the Labor Shortage: Part 1136

How to Keep Your 50-Somethings

Managing the Labor Shortage: Part 2141
Finding—and Keeping—Good Young Employees

Extract Maximum Value from Employees

Getting the Best Employee Ideas with Alan G. Robinson151

Honing Strengths or Shoring Up Weaknesses155

Which Is More Effective?

Melissa Raffoni

When Your Best People Leave, Will Their Knowledge Leave, Too?163

David Boath and David Y. Smith

About the Contributors 171