

CONTENTS

Foreword v

Allen F. St. Pierre

Contributors xvii

1. Thinking Clearly About Marijuana Policy 3

Mitch Earleywine

Section I: Costs of Use and Control

2. The Budgetary Implications of Marijuana Prohibition 17

Daniel Egan and Jeffrey A. Miron

3. Is Drug Testing in the Workplace Worthwhile? 40

Sara Smucker Barnwell and Mitch Earleywine

4. Marijuana and Driving: Trends, Design Issues, and Future Recommendations 71

Anthony Liguori

Section II: Views From Abroad

5. A Cautious Case for Cannabis Depenalization 91

Wayne Hall

6. Law, Culture, and Cannabis: Comparing Use Patterns in Amsterdam and San Francisco 113
Craig Reinerman and Peter Cohen

Section III: Depictions of Addictions

7. Marijuana and the Media: Science, Propaganda, and Sloppy Reporting in the U.S. News Media 141
Bruce Mirken
8. Disseminating Accurate and Balanced Marijuana Education: An Opportunity for the Policy Reform Movement 159
Roger A. Roffman and Anne Nicoll
9. Marijuana's Perceived Addictiveness: A Survey of Clinicians and Researchers 176
Robert Gore and Mitch Earleywine

Section IV: Ethical and Religious Perspectives

10. Do Marijuana Offenders Deserve Punishment? 189
Douglas Husak
11. Judaism and Marijuana 208
Elliot N. Dorff
12. How in God's Name Do We Reform Our Marijuana Laws? 228
Charles Thomas
13. Detailed Analyses of Religious Groups' Divergent Positions on Marijuana 247
Charles Thomas

Section V: What About the Children?

14. Marijuana Abuse Prevention 283
Mary Ann Pentz and Steve Sussman
15. Revisioning Youth Policy on Marijuana and Other Drug Use: Alternatives to Zero Tolerance 300
Rodney Skager

Section VI: Support for Prohibitions

16. The (Often Unheard) Case Against Marijuana Leniency 325
Kevin A. Sabet

Section VII: A Call to Action

17. Values and the Marijuana Debate 355

Mitch Earleywine

Author Index 361

Subject Index 373