

Foreword to the Paperback Edition ix

Preface to the Paperback Edition xv

Preface xix

Introduction: German Labor History and the Meanings of Women's Work 1

- 1 Gender and Sexual Politics in the Transition from Home to Factory Industry 16
- 2 "The Man Transformed into a Maiden"? Feminization in the Textile Industries of the Rhineland and Westphalia 38
- 3 Sexual Difference and the Social Question in the Transition to the "Industrial State," 1844–1889 85
- 4 State, Social Body, and Public Sphere: Regulating Female Factory Labor during the 1890s 126
- 5 Social Policy, Body Politics: Factory Labor, Maternity, and Volkskörper, 1900–1914 170
- 6 Work Experiences, Work Identities: Dissolving the Dichotomy between Home and Work 218
- 7 Behind the Mill Gate: Gender and the Culture of Work 283

Conclusion 324

Index 333