

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Sketch: The Asia Pacific region	xiv

PART 1: REGIONAL POLICIES AND STRATEGIES

1. What has changed, and what has not changed, since 9/9? Marika Vicziany	3
2. Money laundering and security Kannan Srinivasan	21
3. The role of the European Union in Asian security Liisa Laakso	45
4. The legal response of India, Malaysia, Singapore and Australia to 9/11 Oliver Mendelsohn	60
5. Deadly discourse: reflections on terrorism and security in an age of fear Amitav Acharya	83

PART 2: CASE STUDIES ON SECURITY ISSUES IN THE ASIA PACIFIC

6. Islamic militancy and Pakistan: domestic and global implications Samina Yasmeen	97
7. Musharraf and controlling terrorism Farhan Bokhari	110
8. Deconstructing Muslim terrorism Pervez Hoodbhoy	117
9. The Indo-Pakistan peace process and the China factor Asad Durrani	129
10. South-east Asia's counter-terrorism dilemma David Wright-Neville	142

11. South-east Asian responses to arms and terror K.S. Nathan	159
12. Progress and setbacks in Philippine–US security relations Noel M. Morada	181
13. Counter-terrorism legislation in the Philippines Charles G.L. Donnelly	194
14. Issues in South Asian terrorism S.D. Muni	217
15. Missile proliferation in India and Pakistan Ben Sheppard	231
16. The role of Russian industry in the Asian arms race Carlo Kopp	247
17. China, the United States and National Missile Defence: an Australian perspective Kim C. Beazley	266
18. Japan's experience with terrorism Takashi Sakamoto	281
Index	298