

Contents

Foreword Michael Reisman, 13

INTRODUCTION, 23

Fantasy and Reality, Origin and Relevance, Circumstances of Delivery

THE TALES

Aluel and Her Loving Father, 33

Deng and His Vicious Stepmother, 49

Agany and His Search for a Wife, 59

Chol and His Baby-Bride, 69

Diirawic and Her Incestuous Brother, 78

Kir and Ken and Their Addicted Father, 91

Achol and Her Wild Mother, 94

Duang and His Wild Wife, 97

Nyanbol and Her Lioness Mother-in-law, 103

Ayak and Her Lost Bridegroom, 107

Ajang and His Lioness-Bride, 111

Awengok and His Lioness-Bride, 116

Achol and Her Adoptive Lioness-Mother, 121

Ageerpiiu and a Lion, 125

Amou and the Son of God, 128

Wol and Wol After a Lion's Tail, 131

Atong and Her Lion-Husband, 133

The Four Truths, 137

Ngor and the Girls, 140

Acienggaakdit and Acienggaakthii, 143

Thaama and Mohammed, 152

TALES IN CONTEXT, 157

Social and Moral Identification, Fundamental Values, Flirtation and Courtship, Formalities of Marriage, The Family and Kinship, Power and Leadership, Age-Set System, Property and Economy, Religion and Well-Being, Social Change

Recording Dinka Folktales, 196

Sources, Translation