

Content

Part I: Social responsibility in monetary economics – themes from New Year's letters 2007- 1995

Introduction	11
2007 – Money and Ethics	15
Usury and Bribery	15
Ethics	18
The Strain between “Money and Spirit”	19
The “Charity”	19
Self- Interest and Public Interest	20
The Ethical Personality and Actions	21
“Internal Ethics” – “External Ethics”	23
2006 – Trust in Monetary Economics	27
Differentiation and Exclusion	27
Using Money rather than Having it	28
Banks only manage the Money for Others	32
Trust is Good for the Economy	33
“Creditworthy Lenders”	35
2005 – Social Justice in a Money Society	38
Charity – “Love Thy Neighbour”	39
Competition and Responsibility	39
Market and Justice	40
Re-feudalisation of the Economy	41
Money as a Means for Communications	42
Banker's Characters	43
Jurisprudence and Morals	44
Against Social Discrimination	45
Berlemont: The 26 th state of the EU?	46
Usury: Thresholds and Prohibition	47
2004 – Courage and Self-Confidence	49
Money as a Security	50
Facilitating Self-determined and Effective Consumption	59
2003 – Truth and Honesty	61
The Different Facets of the Truth	61
Legitimacy of Interests	63
Truth as a Source of Legitimacy	63

Money as Virtual Information	65
Inappropriate Products as its Advantages for its Suppliers	66
2002 – Competition and “Concurrence”	67
Competing for Something instead of against Somebody	68
Social responsibility	69
The Social policy of the Financial Sector	69
Social Finance	70
Discrimination of Asocial Conduct creates Social Behaviour	70
European Cooperation	71
The Market as Focus	71
2001 – “Work Harder”	72
No Capital – no Demand	73
Ghetto Economy in the US	75
Financial Services and Poverty	78
2000 – Long Term Orientation	78
Reconciling Egoism with Solidarity	79
Social Audit of the Market Economy	80
Securing the Fruits of Sustainable Banking	80
2000 Gothenborg – Access to Financial Services	82
Financial exclusion in Modern Societies	82
1999 – The Social Question of the Private Economy	90
“Perfection of Life or of Work?”	90
Armatya Sen and the American Economy	91
The Customer’s faith	92
1998 – Responsibility in Banking	93
More Power to the Banks	94
Confronting Fatalism	95
1996 – Banks and Social Responsibility - Regulation and Market Economy in the European Union	98
A unified Market	98
Money is a Scarce Good.	99
The Euro makes Liberalisation Visible	100
A World Network of Euro-Dollar-Yen	100
Who is in Charge of the Capital Markets?	101
Money is an Irrigation System	101
Profit is the Power Engine of the Economy	102
The Euro will Catalyse	104
How far can the State correct Deficiencies of the Market?	105
Self-help through Market Forces?	106
The Political Agenda	106
Second Best	107
Low-Income Banking	108
The public aspect in private economy	108

Encapsulated Bank Business	109
1995 – Rationalisation and Supply	111
 Part II: The history of iff through its annual reports 1995 – 2006	 113
1995 – Expertise, Advice and Networking	113
“Community Responsibility in Financial Services”	114
International Challenge	115
1998 – Social Banking and Debt Advice: 1997 was Successful for Service and Assistance	117
Debt and Credit Advice	117
Expansion of the FIS-Database	118
Göteborg conference: “Access to Financial Services”	119
1999 – Customer Focus and Consumer Orientation: New Areas of iff Activity	120
Social Investment and Small Business Financing	120
Iff Publications	121
2000 – The Four Pillars of a Social Money Economy	122
Public Interest Organisations	122
A Socially Responsible Proposition: “Micro-lending” and Adjusted Financial Products	124
Media and a Critical Public	125
The State and the Law: Payment and Bankruptcy Law	125
2001 – Case by Case Analysis of Failed Financial Services – a Re-orientation?	125
Final Quality Testing for the Economy	126
2002 – “Social Finance” – Innovations by Financial Services Providers	127
Group-Orientation of Bank Outlets, Financial Literacy, Pensions and Start-ups	127
Time-Management at iff	129
iff as Organisational Concept	130
2003 – Accomplished Project and Fresh Starts	130
Successfully completed Projects	130
Financial Literacy and Prevention of Over-Indebtedness	131
Has Consumer Protection in Financial Services failed in the EU?	133
iff as a Small Business with Big Radiation – Some Figures	134
2004 – A Difficult but Productive Year: The Private Sector finances iff	135
Fewer EU Tenders – Many Project Applications	136
“Consumers and the Law”	136
Our Services	137
2005 – Farewell to the State	138
A Year of Auditors and Authorities	138
The Private Sector as a New Research Partner	139
2006 – A New Era: Internationalisation and Product Innovation	140

International Coalition Building	140
More Openness in the Banking Sector	141
“Export Finance for Engineers“	141
Outlook for the year 2007	142
Cooperation with the University of Hamburg	142
 Publications, Projects and Principals	 144
English Publications (only books)	144
Expertises and Projects	144
Current International Projects 2007	146
Principals (International Organisations)	146