

Contents

Acknowledgements	IV
Glossary of Russian Terms	V
Introduction	1
1 Samara 1889–93: The Making of a Marxist	9
2 The Background of Orthodoxy	29
3 St Petersburg: The Emergence of a Leader	59
4 Theoretical Basis – The Economic and Social Analysis	79
5 From Economic Agitation to Political Agitation	109
6 Turn-of-the-Century Crisis – The Threat to Orthodoxy	135
7 The Reaffirmation of Orthodoxy – Social-Democratic Consciousness and the Party	161
8 1904–7: Revolution and Counter-Revolution	197
9 Theory and Practice in the Democratic Revolution	213
10 1908–11: Problems of Cohesion in a Period of Reaction	249
11 1911–14: Revival of the Labour Movement and Glimmerings of a New Theoretical Analysis	282
Notes and References	307
Chronology of Major Events and Lenin's Writings and Activities, 1870–1914	333
Index	343