

CONTENTS

Preface ix

Lauren B. Strauss and Michael Brenner ix

Modernity through the Eyes of Its Chroniclers: The Scholar as Interpreter and Shaper of Modern Jewish Life i

Lauren B. Strauss

PART 1. PERSPECTIVES ON A SCHOLAR OF MODERN JEWISH HISTORY

1. Michael A. Meyer: An Appreciation ii

Ismar Schorsch

2. Michael A. Meyer and His Vision of Reform Judaism and the Reform Rabbinate: A Lifetime of Devotion and Concern 17

David Ellenson

PART 2. BETWEEN TRADITION AND MODERNITY

3. Michael A. Meyer's Periodization of Modern Jewish History:
Revisiting a Seminal Essay 27

David B. Ruderman

4. When Does the Modern Period of the Jewish Calendar
Begin? 43

Elisheva Carlebach

5. The Controversy over the Salvation of the Jews, Turks, and Heathens in the Second Half of the Eighteenth Century:
A Theological Path to Tolerance? 55

Ernst-Peter Wieckenberg

6. The Merchant of Venice and the Theological Construction of Christian Europe 74
Susannah Heschel

7. Toward the Popular Religion of Ashkenazic Jews:
Yiddish-Hebrew Texts on Sex and Circumcision 93
Michael Stanislawski

PART 3. THE CONSTRUCTION OF MODERN JEWISH HISTORY

8. Analyzing the Zeitgeist: Ludwig Philippson as Historian of the Modern Era 109
Christhard Hoffmann

9. German Historians and the Jews 121
Peter Pulzer

10. The "Return of the Jews to History": Considerations about an Ideological Concept 133
Evyatar Friesel

11. Simon Rawidowicz on the Arab Question: A Prescient Gaze
into the "New History" 143
David N. Myers

12. Jewish Religion and Capitalism 168
Avraham Barkai

PART 4. JEWISH COMMUNITIES NEGOTIATING MODERNITY

13. The Mystical World of Colonial American Jews 185
Jonathan D. Sarna

14. Public Faith and Private Virtue: Cincinnati's American
Israelites 195
Karla Goldman

15. Gender, Antisemitism, and Jewish Identity in the
Fin de Siècle 205
Paula E. Hyman

16. Apprenticeships in Work and Love: Jewish Youth Growing Up in Imperial Germany 224
Marion Kaplan

17. Lukewarm Establishment or Militant Religious Ideology?
German Liberal Judaism in the 1920s 247
Steven M. Lowenstein

PART 5. THE EVOLVING LEGACY OF MOSES MENDELSSOHN

18. Moses Mendelssohn's Dreams and Nightmares 263
Shmuel Feiner
19. The Construction and Deconstruction of a Jewish Hero:
Moses Mendelssohn's Afterlife in Early-Twentieth-Century
Germany 274
Michael Brenner
20. Singing New Songs: Translation as a Metaphor for Modernity 290
Richard N. Levy

PART 6. CULTURAL EXPLORATIONS IN MODERN JEWISH LIFE

21. Reflections on Jewish Nostalgia in the Era of Globalization 305
Richard I. Cohen
22. From Klausner to Oz and Back 315
Arnold J. Band
23. Stumbling Stones: Marks of Holocaust Memory on German
Streets 325
Monika Richarz
24. Is Literary History Possible? Reflections on Literary History 339
Gershon Shaked

Selected Bibliography of the Works of Michael A. Meyer 351

List of Contributors 359

Index 365