

Contents

Preface	v
1. A Theory of Relativity for Economic Sciences	1
2. Liberal Economics and Manipulative Corporate Accounting	14
3. The Indian Economic Association and Its Journals: Memoirs of a Managing Editor	28
4. Special Economic Zones (SEZs) and Land-use Incongruities	44
5. Rural Finance in India: Jitters over a Century	58
6. Business, Government and Education	64
7. Future Education: Materialistic or Ethical	76
8. Changing Perspectives of Management Education	90
9. Strategies of Mobilisation of Financial Resources by Universities in East Zone	97
10. The Logic and Illogic of Devaluation	114
11. Ambedkar the Commercialist	125
12. Coalition Governments and Good Governance	136
13. Competition and Ethics: HR Vision 2020	141
14. Confluence of Ethics and Excellence in Management	153

15. Commerce and Bureaucracy under WTO Regime	168
16. Globalisation: Boon or Bane	178
17. Vision 2020 for Corporates in Global Economy	187
18. Financial Services under WTO Regime	196
19. Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) and Globalisation	208
20. Ministerial Meddling in Public Sector	215
21. Drucker on Delegation	218
22. Privatisation of Public Enterprises	220
23. An Early Macroeconomics	222
24. Abram Bergson	224
25. Universities and Academics	226
26. Economics should look Eastward	228
27. An Overdue Letter to President Bush from Albert Einstein (The Bank of England's Ten Years of Success)	232