

Contents

Abbreviations	xv
Table of Cases	xix
Table of Legislation	xxi
Tables and Figures	xxiii

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Introduction	2
1.2	The Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004	2
1.3	Multi-Agency Response	3
1.4	Aims of this Book	4
1.5	Summary	6

2	Putting Domestic Violence into Context	9
2.1	Introduction	10
2.2	'Just a Domestic'?	10
2.3	What is Domestic Violence?	11
2.4	Who Commits Domestic Violence?	14
2.5	Different Forms of Domestic Abuse	14
2.6	How Serious is the Problem of Domestic Violence?	16
2.7	Why Do Victims Call the Police?	16
2.8	Positive Action and Arrest	18
2.9	Ten Myths and Stereotypes about Domestic Violence	19
2.10	Use of Advertising to Raise Awareness	23
2.11	Effective Implementation—Measuring Success	25

3	An Intelligence-Led Approach	27
3.1	Introduction	28
3.2	What is Crime Analysis?	29
3.3	Understanding the Context of Domestic Violence	30
3.4	Domestic Violence and the National Intelligence Model (NIM)	32
3.5	Domestic-Violence Analysis	34

4	Effective Investigation	61
4.1	Introduction	62
4.2	Putting the Offender at the Centre of the Investigation	63
4.3	Initial Reporting—‘First Time, Right Time’	65
4.4	Attending the Scene	70
4.5	Dealing with the Victim	72
4.6	Dealing with Witnesses	78
4.7	Dealing with the Suspect	79
4.8	Powers of Arrest	79
4.9	Obtaining Best Evidence	85
4.10	Conducting Interviews with Suspects	87
4.11	Prosecution of Cases	91
4.12	Specialist Domestic Violence Courts (SDVC)	104
4.13	Completion of Crime and Intelligence Reports	105
5	Risk Identification, Assessment, and Management	107
5.1	Introduction	108
5.2	What Positive Obligations are Imposed on Investigators?	108
5.3	Benefits of Good Risk Assessment	109
5.4	Risk Identification, Assessment, and Management	111
5.5	The Risk-Assessment Models Available for Police Staff and Officers to Use	114
5.6	The Domestic Abuse, Stalking and Harassment, and Honour-Based Violence Risk Model (DASH, 2008)	119
5.7	MARACs and the Non Police Risk Identification Checklist	168
5.8	Common-Risk Framework	177
6	Children and Domestic Violence	181
6.1	Introduction	182
6.2	Effective Police Responses to Domestic-Violence Cases Affecting Children	184
6.3	Considerations when Investigating Cases of Domestic Violence where Children are Affected	187
6.4	Risk Identification/Management and the Needs of the Children	194
6.5	How Agencies can Work Together to Ensure Children’s Safety	197
6.6	Serious-Case Reviews and Domestic-Violence Homicide Review	199
6.7	Missing Persons Cases and Children	199

7	Honour-Based Violence (HBV)	201
7.1	Introduction	202
7.2	What is Honour-Based Violence (HBV)?	202
7.3	Forms of HBV	203
7.4	How Prevalent is HBV?	215
7.5	The Role of the Police	218
7.6	Risk Identification, Assessment, and Management of Cases	224
7.7	Partnerships with other Agencies and Organizations	231
7.8	Tactical Menu of Intervention Options for Victims and Offenders	233
8	Domestic-Homicide Reviews	245
8.1	Introduction	246
8.2	What is a Domestic-Homicide Review?	246
8.3	Scope of the Review	250
8.4	Conducting the Review within Each Agency and Identifying Lessons to be Learnt	252
8.5	What the Report Should Look Like	253
8.6	What Happens with the Findings	264
8.7	Implications for Disclosure	264
8.8	Findings from Domestic-Homicide Reviews in London	266
8.9	Effectiveness of Reviews	268
9	Information-Sharing	271
9.1	Introduction	272
9.2	Why Share Information?	272
9.3	The European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) 1998 and Information-Sharing	273
9.4	Implications of the Data Protection Act 1998	275
9.5	Does the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 allow for the Sharing of Information?	279
9.6	Common-Law Powers concerning Confidentiality and Disclosure	279
9.7	Sharing Information with Consent of the Victim	280
9.8	Sharing Information relating to Children at Risk or Witnessing Domestic Violence	281
9.9	Guidance on the Management of Police Information	281
9.10	Checklist for Lawful Information-Sharing	282

10	Civil Law and Other Protective Measures	287
10.1	Introduction	288
10.2	Family Law Civil Injunctions	288
10.3	Restraining Orders and Antisocial Behaviour Orders (ASBOs)	290
10.4	Civil Orders under the Sexual Offences Act 2003	291
10.5	Forced Marriage (Civil Protection) Act 2007	292
10.6	Extended and Indeterminate Public Protection Sentence	292
10.7	Integrated Domestic Abuse Programme (IDAP)	292
10.8	Orders in Relation to Children	293
10.9	Sanctuary Scheme	295
10.10	Alarms and Mobile Phones	296
10.11	Neighbourhood Policing and Cocoon Watch	296
10.12	Safety Plans	297
10.13	Specialist Refuge Service Providers and Emergency Accommodation	299
10.14	Independent Domestic Violence Advisers (IDVA)	300
10.15	Domestic-Violence Support Agencies	301
10.16	Domestic Violence and the Immigration Rule	303
 APPENDICES
A	Risk: Considerations of risk for victims	305
B	The Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and Police and Justice Act 2006: Exchange of Personal Information	307
C	SOCPA 2005 s 110: Reminder of general powers for arrest	310
D	Human Rights Act 1998	312
E	Criminal Justice Act 2003—hearsay—cases where witness unavailable	314
F	Special Schemes Topics	316
 References and Websites
Index		327