

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Sociolinguistics (real and imagined) in Eastern Europe: An introduction
Jeffrey Harlig	1
Socialism and sociolinguistics in the eastern bloc
Jeffrey Harlig	25
The changing situation of sociolinguistic research in the former Soviet Union: A personal reading
Allen D. Grimshaw	45
The sociolinguistic study of language contact and bilingualism in the former Soviet Union: The case of Belarus
Curt Woolhiser	63
History and prospects of sociolinguistics in Bulgaria
Lydia Dachkova	89
Sociolinguistic research in the former Czechoslovakia
Louise B. Hammer	109
The beginnings of (western-style) sociolinguistics in Hungary: A personal account
Csaba Pléh	125
“No CARE-packages, please – We’re Hungarians”: The climate before, during, and after the birth of the Budapest Sociolinguistic Interview
Miklós Kontra	143
Sociolinguistics in Poland: History and prospects (A socio-political analysis)
Karol Janicki	165
Appendix: A review of recent sociolinguistic research on the Romanian language
Anna Borbély	185
Index	197