

Contents

Acknowledgements viii

About the Contributors ix

Introduction: Globalization – the Second Wave

Eleonore Kofman and Gillian Youngs 1

Part 1 Rethinking Globalization in Theory and Practice

- 1 Shifting Ground(s): Epistemological and Territorial Remapping in the Context of Globalization(s)

V. Spike Peterson 11

- 2 Crossing Disciplinary Boundaries: Political Geography and International Relations after the Cold War

Simon Dalby 29

- 3 Beyond the Buzzword: Towards a Critical Theory of Globalization

Jan Aart Scholte 43

- 4 Dangers of Discourse: The Case of Globalization

Gillian Youngs 58

- 5 Globalization and Geopolitical World Orders

Geoffrey Parker 72

- 6 Global Restructuring and International Migration: Consequences for the Globalization of Politics

Hélène Pellerin 81

Part 2 Territorial Logics

- 7 The Modern Multiplicity of States

Peter J. Taylor 99

- 8 Rethinking Sovereignty
Marc Williams 109
- 9 What Next for the State?
Philip G. Cerny 123
- 10 Territoriality in the Nuclear Era
Richard J. Harknett 138
- 11 Citizenship at the Crossroads: Immigration and the Nation-State
Ahmet Icduygu 150
- 12 The Globalization of Telecommunications and the Issue of Regulatory Reform
Gerhard Fuchs and Andrew M. Koch 163
- 13 The Globalization of Knowledge and the Politics of Global Intellectual Property: Power, Governance and Technology
Chris Farrands 175

Part 3 Trading Places or Gendering the Global

- 14 An International Political Economy of Sex?
Jan Jindy Pettman 191
- 15 Feminism, Gender Relations and Geopolitics: Problematic Closures and Opening Strategies
Eleonore Kofman 209
- 16 Gender Inequalities and Feminist Politics in a Global Perspective
Jill Krause 225
- 17 The Places of Women in Trading Places: Gendered Global/Regional Regimes and Inter-nationalized Feminist Resistance
Anne Sisson Runyan 238
- 18 Selling NAFTA: Gendered Metaphors and Silenced Gender Implications
Marianne Marchand 253

Part 4 Other Domains of the Global: Issues of Inequality

- 19 Other Contexts of the Global: A Critical Geopolitics of North–South Relations
David Slater 273

- 20 Globalization and Governance: The Paradoxes of Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa
Giles Mohan 289
- 21 Prospects for Sustainable Development: Experiences of Small Island Developing States
Roy Smith 304
- 22 Globalization, Culture and Land: The Case of the Caribbean
Tracey Skelton 318
- Index* 329