
Contents

Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Political Economy and Public Life in Eighteenth-Century France	1
1 Commerce, Finance, and the Luxury Debate	13
2 Constructing a Patriot Political Economy	49
3 Regenerating the Patrie : Agronomists, Tax Reformers, and Physiocrats	80
4 Patriotic Commerce and Aristocratic Luxury	118
5 Political Economy and the Prerevolutionary Crisis	151
6 The Agrarian Law and the Republican Farmer	182
Conclusion: The Political Economy of the Notables	213
Bibliography	221
Index	257

Illustrations

1	Inside the Port of Marseilles , by Joseph Vernet, 1754	25
2	Portrait of Samuel Bernard , by Hyacinthe Rigaud, 1726	36
3	Frontispiece to abbé Coyer, La noblesse commerçante , 1756	60
4	Caius Furius Cressinus Accused of Sorcery , by Nicolas-Guy Brenet, 1777	77
5	My Lord the Dauphin Plowing , by François-Marie-Antoine Boizot, 1769	91
6	Frontispiece to Edmé-François Darigrand, L'anti-financier , 1763	97
7	Broadside comparing Jacques Necker to John Law from Collection complete de tous les ouvrages pour et contre M. Necker , 1782	149
8	Oath of the Horatii , by Jacques-Louis David, 1786	163
9	Oath of the Horatii , by Jacques-Louis David, detail, 1786	163
10	The Plowing Lesson , by François-André Vincent, 1798	211
11	The Emperor Plows a Furrow , by Loeillot, c. 1823	215