

Contents

List of illustrations	vi
Preface	vii
1 The Holy Roman Empire, the tradition of the Reich and German particularism	1
2 German Protestantism and the relationship of Church and State	27
3 The individual and the state in eighteenth and early nineteenth century Germany	56
4 Weltliteratur and Nationalliteratur in their relationship to the Enlightenment	82
5 Germany's 'pedagogical province'	107
6 The rise of the Bürger and the establishment of a nation state	139
7 The decline of philosophical idealism and the road to inhumanity	175
8 Germany today, a re-evaluation	210
A brief survey of major historical data	244
A brief survey of major cultural periods/events	248

Illustrations

1	Das heilig Römisch reich mit seinen gliedern, 1511 (by kind permission of the Germanisches Nationalmuseum Nürnberg)	page 6
2	Map of the Holy Roman Empire from 1795, illustrating the particularist nature of Germany (by kind permission of the London Geographical Institute)	14
3	Photograph of the Kyffhäuser Memorial, built between 1890 and 1896, and a cartoon by Karl Arnold (cartoon by kind permission of Carl Hanser Verlag , Munich, Vienna 1974)	16
4	Self-portrait of Albrecht Dürer in his 30th year (by kind permission of Alte Pinakothek , Munich)	34
5	Humboldt University building in Berlin (by kind permission of C. H. Beck Verlag , Munich)	88
6	Caspar David Friedrich, Zwei Männer in Betrachtung des Mondes , 1819 (by kind permission of Bruckmann Verlag , Munich; from G. Unverfehrt, Caspar David Friedrich , Munich 1984)	114
7	Ludwig Richter, Die gute Einkehr (by kind permission of Verlag Karl Robert Langewiesche/ Nf. Hans Köster KG , Königstein)	145
8	Anton von Werner, Kaiserproklamation im Spiegelsaal von Versailles (by kind permission of Archiv für Kunst und Geschichte , Berlin)	155
9	'Der deutsche Sieg', 1919, by Fidus (Hugo Höppener) (by kind permission of Nymphenburger Verlag)	194