
CONTENTS

Abbreviations of Sources	iv
Foreword	v
1 The Initial Impact of the NSDAP on the Agrarian Scene	1
2 The 1930 Programme and the Build-Up and Use of the Agrarian Cadre by Darré	13
3 The General Policies of the Republic and the Agrarian Reaction 1928-1933: National Socialist Propaganda	25
4 The NSDAP's Co-ordination of Agricultural Administration and the Actual Legislation in 1933	43
5 The Underlying Principles of the Peasant Policy Adopted: The War on Speculation	57
6 The Reichsnährstand in Detail: An Analysis of its Personnel and Their Duties: the Reorganisation of Agrarian Marketing and Prices and Incomes Policy	71
7 The Reichsnährstand in its Relationship to Other Official Bodies, and its Own Leadership Crisis in 1936-37	87
8 The Erbhof Law: The Background to its Introduction, Its Provisions and Reception upon the Land	107
9 An Examination of Actual Litigation Under the Erbhof System	125
10 The NSDAP's Settlement Programme: Its Principles, Organisation and Achievements	141
11 Self-Sufficiency in the Third Reich: The Contribution of German Agriculture	161
12 Rural Migration between 1933 and 1939: Its Extent and Causes, and the Consequences for the Erzeugungsschlacht	183
13 National Socialism and Peasant Culture: Race and Romanticism on the Land, and Political Education	203
14 The Management of Wartime Agriculture and Food Distribution	221
Conclusion	249
Appendix: The Erbhof in Statistics	265
Bibliography	272
Notes	280
Index	308