

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	vii
An Introduction Bertel Heurlin	1
PART I: Germany's Position and Role
1 German Nation and German Identity: Continuity and Change from the 1770s to the 1990s Richard Münch	13
2 The International Position and the National Interest of Germany in the Nineties Bertel Heurlin	44
3 Germany as a World Power and as a European Power Ekkehart Krippendorff	64
PART II: Germany's Policy
4 Gulliver in the Centre of Europe: International Involvement and National Capabilities for Action Helga Haftendorn	91
5 Will Germany Assume a Leadership Role in the European Union? Michael Kreile	123
6 German Foreign Policy and Domestic Politics Roger Morgan	152
PART III: Policy Towards Germany
7 The Impact of German Unification on German- American Relations: Alliance, Estrangement or Partnership? Lily Gardner Feldman	179

8	Russia and Germany – from Enemy to Partner? A Contradictory Relationship Vitaly Zhurkin	210
9	The United Kingdom and Germany Christopher Hill	222
10	France and Germany Yves Boyer	241

PART IV: Prospects

11	No Threats, No Temptations: German Grand Strategy After the Cold War Josef Joffe	259
----	---	-----

	Appendix: Copenhagen Research Project on European Integration, CORE	273
--	--	-----

	Index	276
--	--------------	-----